PRESIDENT MAKES CAMPAIGN SPEECH

Taft Tells Maryland Editors That All He Wants Is a Fair Fight.

CANNOT BE IN TWO PARTIES

Says One Can't Be a Progressive and Republican Too—Terms the Bull Moose Electoral Scheme a Dishonest One.

Washington, Aug. 16.—President Taft today made his first political speech since the one he made when notified of his re-nomination. Addressing members of the Maryland Republican Editorial Association at the White House he declared bluntly that Presidential electors were "dishonest men" if they let their names appear on the Republican ballot and intended to vote for the candidate of another party. He asserted that those who were not for the Republican party were against it, and should get out of the way.

"All we ask is a fair fight. A man cannot be in the Republican party and in a third party at the same time, and should be compelled to make his selection" said the President. "Regularity or feeling of regularity, and respect for the Republican party for what it has done, and which it was capable of doing is going to bring over into the Republican party many an American who has been doubtful, and it is going to increase that number in my judgment as we approach the election. It is therefore essential that we make the cleavage as clear as it can be made, so that those who are Republicans shall be Republicans and those who are with the bolters shall bear their names and titles, and not be Republicans and bolters, because they cannot be—at least ought not to be in all fairness." Some of the editors told the President that either the electors chosen for the Republican ticket in Maryland would declare their intention to support him or a new State contion would be held to make new selections. He said he felt sure Maryland would take long steps in the right direction.

The President began his speech with a brief summary of what the Republican party stands for. He said:

"We are Republicans. That means that we believe in certain principles; that we believe in the constitution of the United States, that we believe in mainaining that constitution, that we believe in progress along the lines that the constitution indicates. We are protectionists and we are in favor of maintaining the present prosperity by maintaining a tariff system which shall preserve business as it goes on now and shall secure as high wages as possible to the wage-earners and also profits to those who invest their capital. There two propositions cover a good deal of Republicanism.

"Being a party, we are anxious to have the opinions that our party represents put into force in the operation of the government. The only way we can do that is by electing a Congress and a President who will carry them out. Now that means that we have to be a single party and not a part of two parties. I don't think we are unfair in asking that we be given a chance for a fair fight and in counting those against us who are not with us. To have one one both sides of the fight when we are on one side, is uncomfortable, especially when he is behind you.

"Before the convention it is all right that we differ as to the men best qualified to represent us as Republicans in party. But after the convention each voter's influence should carry its proper and proportionate weight in the election of the party's candidates."

SLEW STEPDAUGHTER.

Accused Murderer Lost His Nerve and Shrank From Killing Himself.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 16.—Charles E. Greenfield, of Chicago, charged with having slain his nine-year-old stepdaughter, Vivian, last Tuesday in a boarding house at Venice, a seaside resort, was captured yesterday in Cucamonga Pass and taken to San Bernardino.

"We had a suicide agreement," said Greenfield. "I suggested it long ago on account of the treatment both of us received from my wife. Just as I was about to draw a razor across Vivian's throat she put her arms around my neck and kissed me, and said: 'We both will soon be gone.'

"I drew the blade across her throat and seeing the blood, lost my nerve and couldn't kill myself. I walked to Los Angeles that night and then started to San Bernardino, where my father lives."

New York, Aug. 16.—A $100,000 fire which started shortly before 2 o'clock this morning in a seven-story loft building in the Bowery near the corner of Grand street, provided a spectacle for the whole downtown East Side. A hundred policemen had their hands full keeping back the crowds of tenement dwellers, who surged half-clad and panicky from the narrow side streets and watched the flames lick up the stocks of several manufacturers of cheap furniture. Two firemen were injured.

GEN. LEINSTER LAID TO REST

Library of Congress,

N. C. Na... Forms as Escort of the Body ... Interred in Oakwood Cemetery at Statesville, N. C.

Charlotte, N. C., Aug. 16.—The body of the late Adjutant General Leinster arrived in Statesville last night and was carried to the residence of his mother on Broad street, where it remained until the funeral this afternoon.

At 2:30 the members of the National Guard formed on Broad street in the following order:

Regiment band and the following companies: Statesvile, Gastonia, Winston-Salem, Charlotte, Asheville, Raleigh, Thomasville, Lexington, Asheville, second company; Concord and Hickory.

They then marched to the residence and formed as escort of the body to the First Presbyterian church.

The services were conducted by Rev. W. R. Minter, of Lincolnton, chaplain of the regiment.

After the services at the church the body was borne to Oakwood cemetery where it was laid to rest, the band playing the funeral dirge. Three volleys were fired and taps sounded over the grave. Numerous and handsome floral tributes were received from all over the State.

MODERN JEAN VALJEAN

City Councilman In Philadelphia Resigns, Saying He Was Criminal

Philadelphia, Aug. 16.—A Jean Valjean in real life was disclosed here yesterday when William Burke, elected a city councilman on the reform ticket, resigned his seat and told how under the name of Benjamin H. Tripp, he had served a long term in the Massachusetts State prison after a career of crime in Boston and New York. Coming to this city in 1909 after completing his sentence, Burke earned a living as a wood cutter, a trade he had learned while in jail. Taking an active interest in reform politics, he was prevailed upon to accept the nomination to the council. Shortly after his election he was recognized by a fellow convict and blackmailed until driven to desperation, he determined to resign and tell his own story.

According to Burke's story appearing in The Philadelphia Enquirer today over his signature, for years before he became a convict at Boston he had led the life of a thief, a pickpocket, a yeggman and a porch-climber. When he was arrested, previous to his conviction at Boston, he was called the "prince of flat workers." He says he started in life, as a street waif on the Eastside of New York selling newspapers.

"Gopher men," the species of crooks who confine themselves to cracking and robbing safes, were the first of the underworld he fell in with. They used him, so his story runs, to visit establishments where they thought a safe might be worth rifling.

Then he drifted in with a gang of "Moll Buzzers," that class of thieves who he explains are pickpockets making a specialty of snatching women's handbags. After this Burke says he went West with several "yeggmen," and in Chicago, Kansas City and San Francisco in the 80s he was the associate of desperate thieves.

Upon returning to New York he became a gambler and then a sneak thief. Later he went to Boston, where, after robbing many houses, he was caught and convicted.

Judge Bond sentenced him on December 16th, 1896, to not less than seven years.

Upon his release he settled in the northeastern section of this city where he worked at his newly-learned trade and saved enough money to buy a little cigar store. He was married and had one child. Burke insists he has done nothing wrong since the gates of Charlestown prison swung open for him and he stepped into the world a free man.

ASHEVILLE ROBBERY.

Private Detectives Will Work on the Express Case.

Asheville, N. C., Aug. 16.—Two deputy sheriffs and two or three members of the police force spent last night in hunting for the man who held up Express Messenger E. F. Carr between Asheville and Biltmore and robbed the safe of something less than $3,000 without result.

Sheriff Williams stated this morning, however, that his men are not now working on the case and Chief of Police Lyerly said his men were not actively engaged. Presumably the hunt will be left to the detectives of the company, who are expected here this afternoon with Superintendent Sadler of Charlotte, who will direct the case.

CATHOLIC PRESS CONVENTION

Preliminary to Session of Federation Of Catholic Societies

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 16.—Members of the Catholic Press Association are in session here today preliminary to the meeting of the American Federation of Catholic Societies which opens here on Sunday.

The convention committee of the federation has received acceptances from 500 delegates and this number will be swelled by many hundreds of visitors. Plans for the meeting as perfected by the local branch of the organization today included a pontifical mass on Sunday morning at the Cathedral of the Assumption at which the Most Rev. John Ronzan, Papal delegate, will be celebrant; and a parade in which 15,000 persons will participate.

ANOTHER ANGLE TO N. Y. GRAFT PROBE

Raid on Disorderly Houses Reveals the Presence of a "Trust"

POLICE ARE BENEFICIARIES

Asisstant District Attorney Says Payments to Inspectors Amount to $25,000 a Month—Accounts Traced to Becker.

New York, Aug. 16.—Pending the arrival here of Sam Schepps, the material witness, whom the grand jury wishes to hear before handing down indictments in the Rosenthal murder case, the district attorney's office is centering its attention on police graft from disorderly houses.

It developed today that the raids last night upon 18 resorts was the result of a tip furnished by Jack Rose, the gambler, whose confession resulted in the indictment of Police Lieut. Chas. Becker on the charge of instigating the Rosenthal murder.

Jack Sullivan, one of the Rosenthal prisoners, according to the information given by Rose, was a collecotr of graft from these houses which are decared to be operated by the "vice trust."

Although the surface result of the raids was the holding of only four alleged proprietresses on $1,000 bail each, Assistant District Attorney Smith says he is in the possession of evidence tonight showing where the graft collected from the "trust" went. He has traced it, he says, to police inspectors. The payments amounted, Mr. Smith said, to about $2,500 a month, or on the basis of $100 a month for 25 houses running steadily.

"Graft is going to the police from two other combinations of higher class," Mr. Smith said, one controlled by an Eastside gang leader whose name has been mentioned in the Rosenthal case.

Mr. Smith also has the name of a woman, the wife of one of the prisoners held for the Rosenthal murder, against whom he says he has evidence that she was a collector of disorderly house graft for Becker.

According to information obtained by agents of the society for the prevention of crime, the "trust" raided last night, known as the "Big Five," nets annual profits of $50,000 over its graft payments and controls about 1,200 women. The graft, it was said, was paid directly to police inspectors by the "trust" itself and not by the individual houses.

While there was no fear of raids by the police it was said the "trust" feared the Society for the Prevention of Crime, and the district attorney's office and for this reason always kept several of its houses vacant, as "jumping" houses in case others were closed up.

Coincident with these revelations, Police Commissioner Waldo today reduced Inspector Cornelius G. Hayes to the rank of captain and suspended him pending his trial on charge that the inspector falsely stated that Commissioner Waldo directed him not to obtain evidence against disorderly houses except by order, and that he failed to suppress disorderly houses in his district.

Besides the announcement that Sam Schepps would not be brought into New York until early Monday morning, the principal development in the Rosenthal case today was the discovery by representatives of the district attorney of two more bank accounts of Lieut. Becker.

The names of the banks were not made public, but the amounts totalled about $10,000, it was learned, making the aggregate deposits about $75,000.

District Attorney Whitman left today for Manchester, Vermont, to visit his family over Sunday.

TAFT'S DEFEAT PREDICTED?

Secretary of Agriculture Says He Will Retire March 5th.

Washington, Aug. 16.—"Tama Jim" Wilson, Secretary of Agriculture, and the oldest man in President Taft's cabinet, today enjoyed his 77th birthday. Secretary Wilson said he was looking forward to quitting public life on March 5, next, so that he might go home among his grandchildren, don his overals and move around among the common people.

Mr. Wilson has exceeded by four years the record for long service in the cabinet, and under his regime the scope of the Department of Agriculture has been widely extended.

TO INCREASE CAPITAL STOCK.

Louisvile & Nashville Said to Have Decided on $100,000,000.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 16.—According to the unverified announcement of a local newspaper today, the management of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad has made definite plans for the increase of the company outstanding capital stock from $60,000,000 to $100,000,000.

The newspaper says: "It is understood that $20,000,000 of the additional stock will be offered to the stockholders at par, immediately."

SENATE SUSTAINS PRESIDENT

Motions to Override Taft's Veto on Wool and Metal Bills Fail to Pass—LaFollette Criticises President

Washington, August 16.—The Senate today voted to sustain the vetoes of the wool and metal tariff revision bills. On the metal bill, the motion to override the President did not even obtain a majority. On neither measure did the veto approach the necessary two-thirds.

Senator Simmons called up the metal bill, which was first disposed of. Without debate a roll call vote was taken and 32 Senators voted in favor of overriding the veto. Thirty-eight voted against passage. No Republicans voted to pass the bill.

Senator LaFollette made the motion to re-pass the Wool bill. He asserted that the bill was a protective tariff measure and was framed according to the Tariff Board's report on the wool industry. Senator LaFollette asserted that the failure of the President to accept the judgment of Congress, was a usurpation of power.

Senator Heyburn denounced the bill as a Democratic measure.

When the vote finally was taken 39 Senators voted in favor of passing the bill, and 36 against it. The following Republicans voted with the Democrats to override the Wool veto. Senators Bristow, Clapp, Crawford, LaFollette, Poindexter and Works were among the number.

SETBACK FOR MRS. LITTLETON.

Her Plans For Purchase of 'Monticello Blocked.

Washington, Aug. 15.—Mrs. Martin W. Littleton, wife of the New York Congressman, sustained her first setback in the fight she is making for Congress to take steps toward the Federal purchase of Monticello, the home of Thomas Jefferson, in Albermarle county, Virginia.

Speaker Clark overruled a motion of Chairman Henry, of the Rules Committee, making the Monticello resolution privliged. Mrs. Littleton was in the gallery at the time.

The busiest man on the floor of the House was Congressman Jefferson Levy, owner of Monticello, who declares he will fight any effort on the part of the Government to acquire Monticello.

TRAIN KILLS WOMAN.

Mrs. Ben Cobler Killed and Two Injured by Southern.

Danville, Va., Aug. 16.—Mrs. Ben Cobler was instantly killed tonight at 6 o'clock at the "dry bridge", the South Main crossing of the Southern Railway, by a local freight train. Her sister, Mrs. Lucile Wells, was at the same time badly injured and Ben Cobler was slightly injured. The trio was walking the north track as passenger train No. 43 flashed by, the noise from which prevented them from seeing the approaching freight. The woman was mangled almost beyond recognition. They were cotton mill operatives.

WAITING FOR HIS MOTHER.

Nothing Done Yesterday in Sydna Edwards Case—Compromise Likely.

Wytheville, Va., Aug. 16.—Nothing was done today in the case of Sidna Edwards, charged with participation in the shooting up of Carrol county court, his counsel asking that the case go over until the arrival of his mother, with whom he wishes to consult before accepting a compromise verdict of 15 years in the penitentiary. If the compromise is not arranged the case will go to trial Tuesday.

OUTLINES

President Taft yesterday made his first political speech since being notified of the Republican nomination, to the Maryand Editorial Association.

During his debate on the wool bill in the Senate yesterday Senator LaFollette made a picturesque attack on the new Progressive party and while bitterly denouncing the trust record of Col. Roosevelt, swore new allegiance to progressive Republicanism.

The Senate yesterday sustained President Taft's vetoes on the wool and metal tariff bills, both measures failing of the necessary two-thirds vote.

The result of the raid made on 18 disorderly houses in New York Thursday night was to give another angle to the graft investigation now under way in connection with the Rosenthal case. Evidence of a "trust" among police inspectors was unearthed.

The body of the late Adjutant General Leinster arrived in Statesville Thursday night and yesterday afternoon the National Guard formed as an escort to the First Presbyterian church. Interment was made in Oakwood cemetery with military honors.

Governor Wilson will likely adopt Committeeman Josephus Daniels' scheme to hold a conference at Seagirt, N. J., with editors of Democratic and independent papers. Today is New Jersey day at the Summer capital and the nominee will make an address this afternoon.

New York markets: Money on call steady, 2 5-8 to 2 7-8 per cent; ruling rate 2 3-4. Spot cotton closed quiet. Flour firm with demand good. Wheat, spot firm; No. 2 red 1.07 c.i.f track and 1.08 1-2 f.o.b. afloat to arrive. Corn, spot nominal. Oats, spot unchanged. Turpentine and rosin steady.

TRAINS HIS GUNS ON BULL MOOSERS

LaFollette Makes Picturesque Attack On the Progressive Party.

HITS ROOSEVELT VERY HARD

The "Original Insurgent" Holds the Colonel Responsible For Growth of Giant Combinations—Not Man to Lead.

Washington, Aug. 16.—In a picturesque, spontaneous outburst during debate on the President's wool tariff veto in the Senate, Senator LaFollette today attacked the new Progressive party, and swore new allegiance to progressive Republicanism.

"The 'original insurgent' quivering with emotion, with clenched hands and strained face, poured out a flood of impassioned oratory that kept the floor and galleries of the Senate rapt and silent. Senator LaFollette assured his associates that he intended to "keep up the fight in the Republican party to make that party really progressive and to keep on until the last bell rings and the curtain falls."

After reviewing briefly the Trust record of Colonel Roosevelt Senator LaFollette declared that the former President "was not the man to find the way out now". He asserted that unless an obstacle dragged across the path of the Progressive movement the Republican party cannot stop its advance.

He declared that when the Republican party, through its progressive associates had reached a point where it would "respond to purposes for which it was born an attempt is made at Chicago to divert it."

Senator Stone asked Mr. LaFollette whether he meant the nomination of President Taft or the nomination of ex-president Rosevelt.

I am awfully surprised, began Senator LaFollette, "that I left the Senator from Missouri in doubt, I hope I did not leave doubt in the mind of any one else."

He continued "On the day that Theodore Roosevelt was made President of the United States there were 149 trusts and combinations in the United States. When he turned his government over William Howard Taft there were 10,020 plants in combinations. When he became President these trusts had an aggregate capitalaztion of three billion dollars and when he left the Presidency they had an aggregate capitalization of 31 billion, and more than 70 per cent. of it was water.

"Their power has gone on growing and spreading. There has been no diminitution in the present administration. The present administraton has sought to apply the Sherman anti-trust law more vigorously than its predecessor, but the time to apply the Sherman anti-trust law effectively was in the infancy of these trusts, when there were only 149.

"I don't believe that the man who was President for seven years while the greatest trust growth occurred, at the very time of all times in the history of the Sherman anti-trust law it could have been made potential in deterring trust organization—I do not think that the man who was President then is the man to find the way out now."

Then turning to Senator Stone, Senator LaFollette inquired:

"Does that answer the Senator from Missouri?"

"That does fairly well,' responded Senator Stone dryly, amid the laughter of the Senate.

After declaring that none of the trusts were his friends Senator LaFollette said:

"So I have no George W. Perkins and no Munsey supporting me. It is a lone, practically single-handed fight I have been waging for 25 years, and I am going to keep on till the bell rings and the curtain falls.'

Senator LaFollette's outburst came without warning to the Senate. He arose to make an analysis of the President's veto message on the wool bill, but he had spoken scarcely a dozen words when the break came.

He expressed the belief that "the redemption of representative government in this country will be accomplished by the Republican party."

The Senator declared that he would not stop the fight until "the Republicans in the House of Representatives and in the Senate, and each of the Legislatures are truly progressive. I am going to keep the fight in the Republican party. I think that is the best instrument through which to progress.

"Now when it is the purpost to make the Republican party respond to the purpose for which it was born, an attempt is made at Chicago to divert it. It won't succeed. It will only disturb the surface of things a little. The Republican party was born to make all men equal and that is all that lies back of the movement of the true Progressives."

New York, Aug. 16.—Structural iron workers employed at Ebbetts Field, the new home of the Brookyn National League team, are on strike today, making it possible that President Ebbetts of the Brooklyns, will not be able to carry out his plans to open the new field on September 4th, when his team returns home to play a postponed game with the Bostons.

TO DISSOLVE PICTURE TRUST

Civil Suit Filed by Federal Government at Philadelphia—Combination In the "Moveys" Alleged— Defendants

Philadelphia, Aug. 16.—The Federal government attacked the so-called moving picture trust in a civil suit filed here today, for the dissolution of the Motion Picture Patent Company and the General Film Company. Ten moving picture film concerns are accused of combining to monopolize the business even to the extent of increasing or decreasing the number of motion picture theatres in which they have no proprietary interest.

The following corporations and individuals, who are officers or directors, are named defendants.

Motion Picture Patent Company, General Film Company, Biograph Film Company, Thomas A. Edison, Inc., Essanay Film Manufacturing Company, Melies Manufacturing Company, Pathe Freres, the Selig Polyscope Company, the Vitagraph Company of America, Armat Moving Picture Company, Frank L. Dyer, Henry N. Marvin, J. J. Kennedy, William Pelzer, Samuel Long, J. A. Berst, Sigmund Lubin, Gaston Melie, Albert E. Smith, George K. Spoor and W. N. Selig.

Edwin P. Grosvenor, special assistant to the attorney general, who has charge of the pending anti-trust suit against the International Harvester Company, made an exhaustive investigation of the moving picture business, drawing the petition filed today by United States Attorney Schwartley. In addition the bill is signed by Attorney General Wickersham and Jas. A. Fowler, his assistant.

The government's petition says that between 2,500,000 and 2,000,000 feet of pictures are printed each week by manufacturers and distributed to thousands of exhibitors all over the United States. The government declares that a sum greatly in excess of $100,000,000 has been invested in the different branches of the business.

The defendants control, it is added, from 50 to 80 per cent of the film business, furnishing approximately 7,000 exhibitors.

The Motion Picture Patents Company, organized in New Jersey in September, 1908, is the holding company of all the motion picture patents of the defendant.

Other than collecting and distributing royalties among the defendants the bill says the patent company's only business is the bringing of lawsuits under the patents it holds. Hundreds of suits are brought, it is alleged, to harass and oppress all persons engaged in the motion picture business who have not obeyed it mandates.

The General Film Company, organized in Maine, in April, 1910, alleged to be the agency through which the defendants' films are distributed to exhibitors throughout the country, was formed, the petition avers, to monopolize the business of the rental exchange, which previously distributed the films.

This company, it is declared, has acquired the business or cancelled the licenses, held from the Motion Picture Patents Company, of every rental exchange in the United States with one exception at a cost of $2,243,089 in cash and $794,800 in preferred stock.

An exhibitor has to pay $2 a week to the patents company, it is said, on every exhibition machine owned by him, even including machines sold years before to the exhibitor without any conditions being attached to the sale.

"Defendants through the patents company," the petition adds, "were enabled to and did determine whether the new motion picture theatres should or should not be opened and whether old ones should be closed, although defendants had no proprietary interest in such theatres. This authority they have exercised and continue to exercise arbitrarily and unreasonably through the patents company."

Each of the ten film manufacturers defendants have license agreements with the patents company providing that films shall not fall into the hands of exhibitors who use any but the defendants' exhibiting machines.

The patents company agreed with manufacturers of exhibiting machines stipulating that every machine should be sold subject to the condition that it shall be used only for the films of the alleged combination. These agreements, it is alleged, fixed the selling prices of machines.

The moving picture anti-trust suit filed today is regarded by the Department of Justice as one of its most important moves under the Sherman law as it squarely asks for a judicial determination of the relation of that statute to the patents laws. The suit will test the right of corporations and individuals to join their respective patent monopolies into one big monopoly through alleged conditions and agreements.

These issues, it is declared, are brought out more forcibly into today's suit than any pending anti-trust litigation.

FIRE IN WILSON COUNTY.

Box Factory of Stantonsburg Lumber Co., Destroyed Thursday Night.

WILSON TO CONFER WITH THE EDITORS

Josephus Daniels Broaches Scheme for Meeting at Sea Girt

SOME GOOD REPORTS RECEIVED

The Nominee is Encouraged By Prospects of Victory in Many States —New Jersey Day at Sea Girt Today.

Sea Girt, N. J., Aug. 16.—Democratic editors throughout the country soon may be invited to gather at Sea Girt for a conference with Governor Woodrow Wilson. Josephus Daniels, National Committeeman from North Carolina, and chairman of the Committee on Publicity, had a long talk with the Governor tonight in which he broached the plan for a meeting of editors of Democratic and independent papers, the time to coincide with the annual meeting of the American Newspapers Publishing Association in New York next month.

"I like the idea very much," said Governor Wilson, tonight in commenting on Mr. Daniels' scheme.

With Mr. Daniels tonight came William G. McAdoo, vice chairman of the campaign committee. They told the Governor that Chairman McCombs who is ill would be able to be at work again in about two weeks.

"Its beginning to feel like a campaign," said the Governor tonight after the conference with Mr. Daniels and Mr. McAdoo. We are organized and getting momentum.

The visitors brought the Governor a report made by George M. Palmer, Democratic State Chairman in New York, after a visit to every Senatorial district in New Jersey, declaring that the Wilson forces "held the State safe.

The Governor also received a report made by Fred B. Lynch, National committeeman from Minnesota, stating that while the Roosevelt movement was strong, the Wilson forces "would carry the State."

The Governor announced that he had accepted an invitation to speak on August 19th before the Platt Deutscher Volkfest Verein at Hoboken, N. J., and also would make an address at the New York State fair at Syracuse on September 12.

Tomorrow will be New Jersey day at Sea Girt. Special trains have been arranged to carry delegations and marching clubs from various parts of the State.

Governor Wilson will speak at noon.

BROWN MARSH CHURCH.

Special Services Were Held There Yesterday—Speakers.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Clarkton, N. C., Aug. 16.—A large assemblage of people gathered today at Brown Marsh, where a series of meetings have been held since last Sunday. Friday was set apart for special services in connection with the old historical church. The Rev. J. M. Plowden preached a sermon of great spiritual power, clearly presenting some of the distinctive doctrines of the church. J. P. McNeill, Esq., of Florence, S. C., in a hearty response to the words of greeting delivered by the pastor, held the undivided attention of the audience for some time with words of eloquence and pathos. His heart to heart speech brought back the sacred memories of the past and encouraged the organization to great efforts. His many friends were delighted to see him and hear him speak.

J. B. Clark, Esq., of Elizabethtown, spoke on the importance of preserving historical records and expressed a desire to complete the work begun, if all the facts as to the history of the church are placed in his hands. He spoke interestingly and entertainly, relating many things about former conditions in this secton.

Rev. W. W. Davidson, of Elizabethtown, completes his series of sermons on the "Holy Spirit" in the afternon. His very able discourses have made a wonderful and lasting impression on the minds of the people. Rev. Fred B. Smith, of Whiteville, will remain over and preach Saturday and Sunday, holding services morning and evening of each day.

A sumptuous dinner was served on the grounds, a most delightful reunion of friends was held, and a prayer of the assembled worshippers was offered in behalf of the old church. All went away rejoicing in the hope of again meeting in this sacred place.

NOT BUBONIC PLAGUE.

Fear Dispelled That Infected Rat Visited Key West.

Key West, Fla., Aug. 16.—Fear that this port has been visited by a rat infected with Bubonic Plague was dispelled here today.

Dr. John F. Alexander, of the U. S. government health service, who was sent here to make an examination of the bacillus found in the rodent, announced that although it resembled the Bubonic Plague bacillus, its action and growth were entirely different. He is taking culture tubes containing the bacillus to Washington to make a series of experiments in order to fully determine the nature of the growth. The result will be reported to the local health officials.

ENTER S. C. TOURNEY.

Crack Hose Wagon Team of Newbern to Enter Contests.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Newbern, N. C., Aug. 16.—The Riverside Hose Wagon Team of this city, are making preparation to go to South Carolina and enter the Interstate Hose Wagon Races at the State Firemen's Tournament to be held there at an early date. This company, although young in years, made an excellent record at the North Carolina State Firemen's Tournament which was held at Fayetteville several weeks ago and they feel confident of winning one of the prizes at the South Carolina meet.

ACTOR'S CONDITION SERIOUS.

Actor Nat Goodwin Met With Accident Yesterday.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 16.—The condition of Nat C. Goodwin, the actor, injured yesterday, is reported serious at the hospital. The actor was thrown on the rocks, when his boat was caught in the breakers.

Paralysis has developed in Nat Goodwin's lower limbs. The muscles on the left side are affected also. Dr. Anderson will not say whether Goodwin's injuries will likely prove fatal. The young woman who accompanied Goodwin on the tragic ride was Miss Moreland, his leading lady. She is uninjured.

ONLY ONE SURVIVES.

Family of Colorado Minister Deliberately Poisoned.

Rocky Ford, Colo., Aug. 16.—That the entire family of Rev. Gustave Latzek, pastor of the local German Lutheran church, was deliberately poisoned, is the belief of Dr. T. Wilson, coroner, who is investigating the sudden death of Mrs. Latzek, following the death of her two children, a daughter, aged nine, and a son, aged 12. It was caused by poison in food which the family ate. An eight-months-old child is the only survivor of the family.

Weekly Shoot Yesterday.

At the weekly shoot of the Wilmington Gun Club yesterday afternoon, L. Clayton Grant, Esq., was high man in the regular event with 44 out of 50; Dr. J. H. Dreher, second, with 41 out of 50; Mr. S. R. Coley, third, with 40. Others shooting, and their scores, were as follows: Geo. S. Boylan, 39; Mr. Miller, 38; H. E. Rollins, 36; T. E. Cooper, 32; O. A. Underwood 27; Mr. Lassiter 21. Mr. Grant shot at an extra 50 targets, getting 48, making his total 92 out of 100. The others shot at an extra 25 targets, scoring as follows: Dr. Dreher 21; Coley 21; Boylan 20; Miller 18; Robbins 17; Cooper 14; Underwood 12; Lassiter 7.

Tarrytown, N. Y., Aug. 16.—John D. Rockefeller's estate at Pocantico Hills, was guarded tonight by a number of deputy sheriffs because of fear of violence on the part of discharged employes. Several men were recently let go by the foreman of the large force of foreign laborers on the estate and trouble ensued, culminating in an attempt to burn the cottage of Foreman Antonio Di Marco.

VAST NEW CAVERN FOUND.

An Unknown Subterranean Grotto in Kentucky is Announced.

One of the most wonderful caverns in the world, the Mammoth Cave in Edmonson county, Kentucky, excepted, has been discovered, says a Danville special. Unnamed, unexplored and almost unknown is the vast cavern. Only a few persons have dared enter the cave to vie wits grandeur and to study the wondrous work of nature.

The cave is situated in the foothills of the Cumberland mountains, on Line Fork creek headwaters, two miles from this city, in Letcher county. Two or three exploring parties have entered the mammoth cave and spent days inside the vast subterranean passageway, but none have ever discovered the end.

They report passageways, rooms and chambers innumerable, some enormous in size, of transparent stalactitic columns. One room has a level and smooth floor, and they call it the dance hall, while others have unfathomed pits and chasms. One party returning here a day or two ago said that immense stalactitic columns extending from roof to floor may be seen on either side of the entrance.

As they proceeded on their downward journey the formations became more interesting. Finally they found themselves in a labyrinth of passages resembling hallways, windows or entrances into other rooms or chambers in which appear stalactities in thin sheets, round, square and, in fact, in almost all shapes conceivable—from a few inches to three feet in length.

In the first chamber a most beautiful stalactite rises from the floor to about 20 feet in height and stands out independent and alone in all its silent splendor. Others, however, can be seen and have their individual beuaty, but they do not compare with this monarch.

Of the first discovery of this wonderful cave very little is known. Some eight or ten years ago Oliver Holcomb of the Line Fork section, led a party of explorers for several miles into the unknown regions. One of the party, however, became lost in one of the many chambers, and for two days a search was instituted. At length the lost boy was found far back in the main passageway, three miles from the entrance.

It is said there were divers indications inside the cave that it had been discovered many years before. Parts of old kettles, furnaces and the like were discovered. People residing in the section declare that there are other big caves in the community, but perhaps of less magnitude than the one described. They believe that this cave will far surpass the great subterranean wonder, Mammoth Cave, in Edmonson county, when it is thoroughly explored.

Flies lay their eggs mostly in horse manure and sometimes in decaying vegetable matter, and human excreta. About five days after the egg is laid the fly becomes a worm or maggot, emerging full grown from this stage after the end of the Winter, or in Summer five days after the maggot stage. Each female fly lays about 120 eggs. There is a new generation of flies about every two weeks; one fly can become the ancestor of billions in a Summer.

GIANTS EVEN UP THE SERIES

With Tesreau Twirling Brilliantly New York Takes Second Game From Chicago 7 to 4—Cubs Use Four Pitchers

Chicago, August 16.—With Tesreau pitching in fine form, New York defeated Chicago 7 to 4 today and evened up the series. The big right hand pitcher held Chicago to three hits until the ninth inning, while New York drove two pitchers out of the box early in the game.

New York forced "Jimmy" Lavender, who started the game for Chicago, to retire before he had pitched two innings. Then Reulbach was sent into the box, but gave way to Cheney in the seventh, after New York had made four runs off him. New York got a run off Cheney in the eighth and he was relieved by Toney in the ninth.

Tesreau was given brilliant support. Murray made two sensational catches, running back into the crowd and pulling down drives that otherwise would have gone for two base hits. New York ran wild on the bases, stealing six off Archer and one off Cotten.

Johnny Evers, whom President Lynch, of the National League, suspended for five days for umpire baiting at the recent Boston series, will return to the field tomorrow.

GOOD JUDGMENT

(Major H. A. London, in The Chatham Record).

The Senatorial contest in this State continues to grow in interest and attracts more attention and arouses more interest than anything else in the political line. Indeed it is arousing more interest and is more talked about than even the contest for President. Some Democrats (and we regret to say that their number is quite large) seem to think that the salvation of the party and the safety of the State depend upon their favorite for Senator being nominated. It is all right for every Democrat to have his choice in the Senatorial contest and to express it, but it is not right to get mad with another Democrat for not having the same choice. One Democrat has as much right to have his choice as another and every one should bear in mind the truth of the old saying, "Many men of many minds." Every one of the three Senatorial aspirants has been highly honored by the Democratic party, and no one of them should feel slighted if he does not win in this race. We appeal again, as we have frequently, for party harmony and party success, and we urge the adherents of the Senatorial candidates not to "let their angry passion arise," but to bear in mind that they "be brethren" and not let any personal preferences prevent their uniting together against the common enemy, the Republican party.

BRUTAL CROOK WANTED.

Persistent Search in New York for Dangerous Man.

New York, Aug. 16.—The haunts of ruffians and criminals were searched today for a robber who mthe police say is one of the most brutal crooks they have ever known. In an apartment building on 80th avenue the robber made two attacks on women.

The burglar in one case, picked up an innocent infant and dashed it against the wall to torture the mother into revealing the hiding place of her money. The mother was Mrs. Paul Standerton, and had no money in the house. The second victim was a young bride whom the ruffian choked into insensibility and then robbed her of her jewelry and money.

A single drop of spilled milk or a small particle of neglected food will contaminate a refrigerator in a few days. Keep the refrigerator clean and fresh. Wash and scald the food department out once a week. Monday is a good time to do this, while the stock in the refrigerator is low and before the ice man comes. Be sure that the trap and drain is working well. Don't store things in the refrigerator that will cause odors, such as onions and cabbage.

HOW MEN ARE MEASURED

A Progressive Is Constantly Improving His Opinions (Editorial in Life).

Why should a man spend the time of the House telling them, as Rodenberg did, what Dr. Wilson said in a book printed 10 years ago? Of course, Mr. Rodenberg put Dr. Wilson's sentiments in the worst light possible, but what odds, anyhow?

Dr. Wilson is a progressive; we are all progressives; none of us whose mental wheels have continued to revolve think politically just what we did 10 years ago. We have all been to school all these last 10 years. If we have not come along any since 1902, we ought to have such spoonfed instruction as they give the feebleminded. There are probably many lines in Dr. Wilson's history which will not be serviceable to him as a Democratic candidate, but the important thing is not what he thought then, but what he thinks now, and the more he has been able to improve on his opinions of 1902 the more of a progressive he is.

We meet people who want to know what a progressive is, anyhow. Perhaps it is fairly defined as a man who has improved on his past opinions. Contrarywise, the standpatter is a man whose opinions are no better than they were.

Progressives, then, differ according to the past views that they have progressed from. The sifting of the progressives is the most interesting political proceeding now going on. It is automatic. Every progressive is trying to find out what he is and what candidate he belongs for. It is to laugh at the struggles of these excellent people to place themselves. They can go with Roosevelt or go with Wilson, or stay with the Republican party in spite of Taft. Yes, "in spite of Taft," but Taft is really a progressive, too, only he can't keep up. What is attractive about Roosevelt is not so much that superior progressiveness of his political disclosures as his speed. A good many good men went with him because they thought that he would get somewhere. Some of them still think so, but most of his present adherents must be sticking to him either because they are ashamed to quit, or because they want to beat Taft and are not willing to vote for a Democrat.

ISSUES PROCLAMATION.

Gov. Glasscock Asks Sabine People to Lay Aside Arms.

Charleston, W. Va., Aug. 16.—Governor William E. Glasscock late tonight issued a proclamation commanding all persons in Sabine Creek of Kanawha county to preserve the peace and warned all persons not members of the National Guard who have arms to lay them aside.

The proclamation also commands the National Guard to aid the civil authorities in preserving peace.

Governor Glasscock has sent telegrams to Henry K. Black, and Captain B. S. Davis, prosecuting attorney urging them to convene a special session of the grand jury to investigate the situation in the mining region.

London, Aug. 16.—A severe fight between unionist and non-unionist longshoremen at Tilbury docks today resulted in 11 men being injured. The disturbance arose from the determination of the unionist laborers to prevent the employment of "blacklegs." The unionists were victorious, succeeding in routing the "blacklegs" who fled toward London.

DAY'S DOINGS IN RALEIGH

Number of Charters Issued and Amended—General Leinster's Successor—Anson Man Pardoned —Other Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 16.—The Thrift-on Contanction Co., of Charlotte, is chartered with $50,000 capital authorized and $3,000 suzscribed for developing suburban property, operating cotton mills and mercantile business. The incorporators are C. L. McLean, Adlai Osborne and J. W. Fose.

Other charters are to The Bijou Co., Greensboro, capital $15,000 authorized and $5,000 subscribed by C. C. Collins and others for moving pictures and vaudeville. The Wake Cotton Oil Co., of Cary, capital $50,0000 authorized and $8,670 subscribed by D. H. Buffaloe and others. The C. T. Weaver Co., Raleigh, capital $10,000 authorized and $500 subscribed by J. L. Brown, C. T. Weaver and Manley W. Tyree for promoting newspaper circulation by voting contests in the United States and Canada; The Marsh Drug Co., Concord, capital $25,000 authorized and $3,000 subscribed by M. L. Marsh and others.

The Agricultural Publishing Co., of Raleigh that publishes the Progressive Farmer, amended its charter today by changing the name to The Progressive Farmer Co., and increasing the capital stock from $50,000 to $100,000. Editor Clarence Poe is the largest stockholder, others being Dr. B. W. Kilgore, J. S. Pearson and Dr. Tait Butler

Speculation as to the probable successor to Adjutant General Leinster, who was buried at Statesville today, is rife here. Application to Governor Kitchin are now in order and are understood to be coming in both from aspirants personally and from friends in behalf of various military men.

Numbers of military men who are not themselves aspirant are urging that there should be some sort of an understanding reached by the Governor and Hon. Locke Craig, who is to be the next Governor, so that the adjutant generalship can be offered to substantial military man who could see his way clear to cut loose from other business and take the place with the assurance that he would retain the place during at least the administration of Gov. Craig. Without this assurance, they argue, no one really worthy of the place could afford to take it just for the remainder of Gov. Kitchin's term which has only four months to run. Nothing has developed yet to indicate just who are the active candidates for the place. A Raleigh man being especially mentioned is Major J. J. Bernard. Also there is speculation as to the promotion of Assistant Adjutant General Gordon Smith, who is now acting adjutant general. Also there is mention of the name of Col. Z. P. Smith, of Fayetteville, he being quoite an enthusiastic military man.

The work of grading the streets for the new Bloomsbury suburb on the Raleigh Country Club Car line is now under way and this property is to be put on the market very soon. Negotiations are now pending as to a water supply which will be either provided through extending a six inch water main of the city water works half mile from Glenwood or through a contract with the Country Club Water Works Co., that is installing a special plant for the suburban property about the Club and Bloomsbury Park.

There has been much complaint for some time about the very muddy condition of the Raleigh water supply but the official analysis of the water shows uniform purity, the latest analysis being just announced.

The Water Company is being forced by the city to materially enlarge or improve its plant or give up its franchise. The whole mater is to be settled within the next thirty days.

Governor Kichin granted a pardon today for Lewis B. Jones, Anson county, serving since 1905 on a 25 year sentence in the State's prison for second degree murder. The prisoner is old and feeble and the trial judge, the solicitor and others recommended the pardon.

DEMOCRATS OF HARNETT.

Ticket a Strange One—Falcon Meeting—Conviction of Alleged Tiger.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Dunn, N. C., Aug. 15.—The Democrats of the county are feeling very much elated over the ticket named last Monday to fill the different county offices, and know that they will win in the coming election. The men named are all of high character and will appeal to the voters.

A resolution was adopted by the convention which strongly favors good roads and other county improvements, and it is hoped that the voters will see fit to issue bonds and build roads all over the county.

Mayor Shell and Mr. Geo. E. Prince went up to Rocky Mount, as a committee appointed by the town commissioners, to investigate the sewerage system of that city and make a report on the same to the board at their next meeting.

The Falcon meeting opened at that place today, and will continue for ten days. This annual meeting atracts large crowds from several counties and is a matter of a good deal of local interest. There is an orphanage at Falcon and they also issue a weekly paper, devoted to the interest of

The citizens of the town and community are very much interested in the capture and conviction, in the Recorder's Court, of one of the most active blind tigers in the community. The defendant, M. C. Ivey, was found guilty in two cases and was sentenced to the roads in one case for 12 months and fined heavily in the other. As is usual in such cases he appealed to the Superior Court.

Mr. W. H. Turlington, who for several years has been with the Metropolitan Insurance Co., at this place has been moved to Maxton, and will leave in a few days to take up his new work.

WASHINGTON NEWS NOTES

Farmers' and Teachers' Institutes—Mr. Bond to Speak—Other Notes

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Washington, N. C., August 16.—A very auspicious occasion in the annals of Beaufort county was the large farmers' meeting held in the Court House here today. A large gathering of representative farmers from all over this and adjoining counties attended and the meeting was highly successful. The morning was devoted to a farmers' institute at which the farmers were addressed by Congressman John H. Small and a number of experts from the U. S. Department of Agriculture, on different subjects of vital interest to the farmers, giving instruction in the proper use of fertilizers, and the proper methods of selecting seeds, etc., and other topics relating to the interests of farmers. In the afternoon Mr. Stacy made a very interesting and instructive address to a large crowd on the subject of Good Roads, which was well received by his large audience. The address is hoped will result in a movement for better roads in Beaufort county.

Mr. W. M. Bond, a gifted attorney of the Edenton bar, will address the citizens of Washington on the issues of the Senatorial campaign, in the Court House Tuesday evening. Mr. Bond will strongly advocate the return of Senator Simmons and in a strong speech will clearly demonstrate to the citizens the necessity of supporting the senior Senator in his fight for return to the United States Senate.

The Beaufort County Teachers' Institute is now in session at the public school building in this city, with Prof. John L. Harris and his assistant, Miss Cunningham, of Rocky Mount, conducting the institute. The law requires the attendance of all who expect to teach in the county or graded schools during the approaching school year. At the close of the institute an examination will be held and all teachers passing same, will be given certificate to that effect. There are about 40 teachers in attendance and the institute seems to be doing a fine work.

A surprise wedding was solemnized in this city last evening at the home of County Commissioner S. F. Freeman, when his daughter, Miss Rosalie, became the bride of Mr. Claude L. Ricks, son of Sheriff Geo. E. Ricks.

M'KINNON CLAN

Scotch Descendants Hold Fifth Annual Reunion Near Maxton

Maxton, Aug. 15.—The McKinnon Clan held their fifth annual reunion yesterday in the grove at the home of their chief, A. M. McKinnon, just north of Maxton. There were present of the clan 150 members, besides a hundred or more invited guests and a genuine good time and good dinner enjoyed by all who attended.

Speeches were made by Rev. E. E. Mercer, Capt. W. H. McLaurin, of Scotland; Capt. J. C. Everett and S. B. McLean, of Maxton, and Prof. J. McCombie Murray entertained with Scotch songs and recitations.

The counties of Robeson, Scotland, Richmond, Anson, Sampson, North Carolina; Dillon and Marion, South Carolina are represented in the clan. Only the first four mentioned were represented in the meeting yesterday.

John McCormick was elected vice chief, and S. H. McKinnon, secretary, of the organization. A telegram of congratulations from the oldest living member was received, this being A. C. McKinnon, of Eufaula, Ala. Much pleasure was expressed by members of the clan, as well as the friends present, at the recovery of their loved chief, who, since the last gathering has gone through a long and critical illness.

Crops in this section are greatly in need of rain, and it is reported that even now, in the sections where the land is light, rains would do little or no good. Another serious drawback is that although the cotton weed looks very promising in most places, the fruit is not on it, and a crop of considerably less than an average is now in prospect.

G. W. PERKINS TO TESTIFY.

To Tell Senate Committee of Campaign Expenses of 1904 and 1908.

Washington, Aug. 16.—The Senate committee investigating campaign expenditures will request George W. Perkins, of New York, to testify about his contributions to the Presidential funds of 1904 and 1908.

Whether Mr. Perkins will be called to Washington immediately depends upon the plans for the adjournment of Congress.

It is understood that Mr. Perkins has been asked informally to appear and has signified his willingness to do so whenever desired.

Only the Republican members of the committee of investigation are in the city and they are loath to continue the inquiry without the aid of the Democratic minority members is in Colorado member, also is out of town, on account of the illness of his wife, and Senator Paynter, the other Democratic member, also i sout of town. Unless one or the other returns it is probable that Chairman Clapp will not call more witnesses to Washington during the present session.

SHOOTING AT GRIMESLAND.

Colored Girl Shot to Death by Jealous Lover.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Newbern, N. C., Aug. 16.—A shooting affair which resulted in the death of the victim occurred at Grimesland, this county, late Tuesday night. According to what could be learned, Louis Payton, colored, called at the home of Rosa Hoome, a fifteen-year-old colored girl, and asked her to accompany him to a dance. The girl refused to go with him and Payton come to the conclusion that she was waiting to go with some one else. After questioning her and getting no satisfactory answer he became enraged and drawing a revolver fired several shots at her. One of these struck her in the abdomen and she fell to the floor. Seeing that he had inflicted serious injuries on his victim, Payton lost no time in leaving for parts unknown. The wounded girl was at once brought to Newbern and placed in Stewart's sanitorium where she expired a few hours later. Her murdered is still at large.

SUBDUED UNRULY PRISONER.

Exciting Episode in Lenoir Jail—Clark Sjeaking—Many Snakes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Aug. 16.—Facing the certainty of a long sentence to the penitentiary when he is tried next week in Superior court, Charles Parker, a notorious negro burglar and housebreaker, made an unsuccessful attempt to escape from jail here. An exciting affair followed the discovery of Parker's attempt to gain his freedom. When Sheriff Nunn entered the cage-room in which is located the cell occupied by the negro, he found that Parker had removed a heavy sewer pipe with which to prize the bars from his cell door having accomplished this by means of unusual strength which he possessed.

The Sheriff reminded the prisoner that he had formerly warned him, because of the man's aptitude for jail-breaking, that he would be tied down if necessary, to hold him for the State's vengense which he has so earnestly merited.

Then followed a scene, which looked ugly for a while. The sheriff, deputies, policemen and a driver from the fire engine house near all gathered for the unpleasant work of subduing the giant prisoner, sought to entice him to accept the manacles, but Parker stubbornly refused to be humiliated in such a manner, and defied the officers until they determined upon force. Finally, seeing that he was bound to be beaten in a contest of strength against such odds, the negro agreed to let Deputy Gray put the handcuffs on him. Sheriff Nunn directed Driver Lee to put the irons on Parker's wrists, but the latter refused to let the driver a man almost as massive and powerful as himself, approach him. Then the sheriff sent another deputy to get a rope, that the unwilling man might be tied and then manacled. But Parker's stubborness disappeard at the approach of the deputy with the rope, and now, handcuffed and chained to the wall, the most daring criminal who ever operated in this section is awaiting traial by a jury for a number of serious charges. Parker has escaped from prisons a number of times, and although the local jail is as substantial and modern as most, it has been an easy matter before his present incarceration for him to make his way to freedom. The crimes with which he is now charged were committed in Kinston after Parker, having served one month of a four years roads sentence, escaped, returned here, and within a radius of a half mile of the courthouse in which he was convicted, secured a thousand dollars of plunder by wholesale store and residence robberies.

Chief Justice Walter Clark will will make an address in the courthouse here next Wednesday, at noon, in favor of his candidacy for the United States senatorship. Judge Clark's local managers are advertising his coming thoroughly in the surrounding country, and a large crowd is expected to greet the candidate here.

Chairman Mewborn, of the Lenoir Republican executive committee, has issued a call for primaries in the thirteen precincts of the county on August 30th for the purpose of naming delegates to the county convention here on the day following, the 31st. The coming convention of the Taft men here is predicted to be the most strenuous session of the party leaders of Lenoir county in many years, and a comparison of strength with the Bull Moosers will be an interesting feature to those who are anxious to know just what proportion of the local G. O. P. have gone to the new party.

Woodsmen of the various lumber companies in this city report an unusual profusion of snakes in the low-grounds in the region south of here. No reason can be advanced for the appearance of a remarkable number of the reptiles in the timber country, except that it may be a propitious year for them. One man vouches for the killing of five mammoth specimens by a farmber recently, within a short time. One of the snakes, a moccasin, was five feet and three inches in length and twelve inches in circumference. Three other moccasins were almost as long ,and the fifth, a "coach-whip," was six feet and five inches long. M. C. McDaniel, of near Dover, ten miles from here, tells of killing a rattler within three feet of his kitchen door, which was 42 inches in length, weighed five pounds, and had eight rattles.

CHIEF OF POLICE SHOT

Officer John D. Barber, of Hope Mills, Wounded by J. D. Smith

(Fayetteville Observer 16th.)

John D. Barber, chief of police of Hope Mills, was shot twice yesterday afternoon by a white man named J. D. Smith. The wounds are not considered dangerous.

Smith was drinking and had been raising a disturbance at his home. The neighbors sent for Policeman Barber, who immediately started to Smith's house. When within about 75 yards from the house Smith appeared, armed with a breech-loading shot gun, and ordered the officer to stop, raising his gun and firing twice at Barber, who was hit both times in the breast, face and arms.

Barber got his pistol into action as quickly as posible, emptying it, but without effect.

Smith after firing both barrels, reloaded his gun and started for the officer, but as the latter had emptied his pistol and had no shells and was suffering from the wounds, he left the madman and went for assistance.

After the shooting Smith took to the woods, and has not yet been apprehended.

BERTIE PRIMARIES.

J. T. Williams Wins Over Stanley Winborne—Crop Conditions.

Windsor, N. C., Aug. 15.—In a hotly contested campaign for the nomination for the Legislature, J. T. Williams, farmer, banker and man of affairs, won out in the primaries yesterday over Stanley Winborne, Esq. of Murfreesboro. The largest vote ever polled in the county decided this contest, which was the second primary held for this nomination. No scars are left and the party will roll up a large Democratic majority in the Fall election.

The continued long drought throughout this section is beginning to tell seriously on the crops, especially corn. Unless there is a rainfall soon, the corn will be cut short at least 50 per cent., and the other crops of cotton and peanuts will likewise be damaged but in what propotrion is uncertain just now.

THE MORNING STAR

Published by the
WILMINGTON STAR COMPANY, INC.,
Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under Act of Congress, March 2nd, 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.50 for three months, 50 cents for one month, served by carriers in the city, or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payment for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates, or advertise anything foreign to their regular business without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61. Call either, if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

Saturday, August 17, 1912.

President Taft's "truly yours" attitude towards Big Business surely ought to bring its reward.

"We stand at Armageddon," declares Colonel Roosevelt. If he keeps on standing there it will be impossible for him to keep up with the procession.

Generally when a fellow makes an allegation or a statement it is always a good idea to salt it down till the motive and the credibility of the deponent can be inquired into.

A Georgia mother came to the front with triplets a few days ago, but a Massachusetts mother has beaten the record with quartettes. Strange to say all these newcomers are girls.

This country is on the eve of a great commercial era and we predict that more ships will be built in the next 10 years than have been built in a quarter of a century.

We are in favor of letting candidates do all the falling out over the offices. The rank and file of the Democracy ought to sit steady in the boat and refuse to get "het up" over somebody else's fight.

Isn't it quite probable that our old friend Congressman Grosvener will be able to figure on the complex political situation before long? However, he always figures how he votes, but we are sorry to say he generally wins.

Teddy looks good to a lot of people in spite of the fact that George W. Perkins, of the Harvester and Steel Trusts, is his mascot. Some people are incapable of judging a man by the crowd with which he runs and which runs him.

The interest have two friends running for President and they can count on either one that may be elected. A blind man ought to make sure he won't vote for Taft or Roosevelt in this election. On the main issue, relief from the burden of the tariff, their difference would not make noise enough to be heard in a graveyard.

Says the Columbia State: "The Baltimore Evening Sun rightly denounces a scandalous Republican effort to cast suspicion on Councilman Biswanger. We are, too, strong for Bin." We don't care to be too strong for Bin till we meet up with him in Baltimore. He might happen to see us coming. Nevertheless, we are bound to admit that Bin sounds good to us.

National Republican Chairman Hilles has given out a statement claiming that Taft will receive 338 electoral votes and be elected. He names 38 States which he says are sure to go for Taft, while he concedes 10 States to Wilson. He thinks only four States are doubtful, and does not even flatter Roosevelt by giving him a single vote. In explanation of his exuberant claims, it is only necessary to remark that Hilles is young and has little experience in politics.

Says the Petersburg Index-Appeal: "When you pay twenty-five cents a pound for steak it may not be amiss to remember that had not President Taft vetoed the 'free list' bill which the Democrats and Republican insurgents sent him last year Canadian and foreign meats would be coming in forcing down the beef trust prices." However, wouldn't it have been the packers who would have gotten the benefit of cattle on the hoof, since consumers are interested only in dressed meats? The packers surely would have gotten the free cattle but free packing house products is where consumers ultimately would have been benefitted.

SENATOR SIMMON'S FAULT

Our beloved friend Colonel Harker is always drawing us out and compelling us to fire our Columbiad when otherwise we wouldn't do so. We wanted to have as little to say as possible as between those three distinguished Democrats who are candidates for the United States Senate, but most that we have said has been because the Scottish Chief didn't know it was loaded, and has at different times caused us to say something that in every instance has helped the cause of the candidate it is fighting.

The Star has great admiration for all three of the distinguished Democrats who want to represent North Carolina in the United States Senate. We have never attacked any of them, because we would feel like we were attacking the Democratic party, in berating any one of them. On the contrary, we have spoken good words for them, for their record is that of the Democratic party and by it we must be condemned or approved as a party. For that reason we are free to say that during this Senatorial contest, we cannot approve the recklessness of some of the Kitchin and Simmons' papers.

We believe in the square deal in this contest and if we are made to say things that we have tried to sidestep it is not our fault. It is mostly the fault of Editor Harker, of the Maxton Scottish Chief. Several times, without reference to the Senatorship, we have commented upon the prominence of Senator Simmons at Washington. If there were no election involving his seat, as a matter of State pride we would have made the same comment. If Governor Kitchin or Judge Clark were there and were reflecting the same honor and credit on North Carolina we would do the same thing. We are proud of the achievements and reputations of our Governor and our Senators and Representatives in Congress, and we logically justify the Democratic party by their splendid records.

A few days ago we alluded to the leadership of Senator Simmons in the Senate, and the Scottish Chief instead of joining us in claiming the honor for North Carolina insisted on giving it to Virginia. The Chief insisted that Senator Martin, of Virginia, is minority leader in the Senate and so he is in name, but the fellow who is doing the work and getting the credit happens to be the senior Senator from North Carolina. The record says so and the Associated Press is always putting Simmons in the forefront, while Senator Martin, if he is in Washington, is not mentioned.

Admiral Sampson was in command of the American fleet which won the victory at Santiago, but it was Admiral Schley who did the fighting while the lamented Sampson was twenty miles away. Surely the Scottish Chief would not join the friends of Sampson in taking the honor from Schley, the Southerner. As a matter of fact, the fellow who is entitled to the credit of turning jack is the fellow who is dealing the cards.

The Star is quite content for North Carolina Democrats to select their Senator without its advice, and we believe them competent to do it, but they ought not to be misled about any of the distinguished candidates. We realize that is awfully provoking for Senator Simmons to persist in keeping right on cutting a wide swath in National legislation at Washington. He was the Democratic conferee on the Panama Canal bill a few days ago, and instead of occupying the attitude of a boy with his thumb in his mouth, he had a great deal to do in getting the bill in such shape as to save the face of the Democrats in both the House and the Senate. He closed the debate for the Democrats and probably that means nothing.

Senator Simmons is acting with a great deal of impropriety in taking advantage of his seniority and long experience in the Senate. He knows the ropes of legislation, of course, but others are after his place and it is not fair to them for him to be doing things while they are back in the "sticks" telling us how he hasn't done a thing and what he has done is contrary to the ideas of all other men who think they ought to be in Washington in his stead.

If the candidates in this Senatorial contest win on their merits, it suits us, but it is both humorous, absurd and outrageous to attempt to win on misrepresentation that is so palpable as to make friends for Senator Simmons.

The New York Sun says the betting odds in Wall Street on Tuesday were 4 to 1 against Roosevelt. The highest against the Colonel heretofore has been 3 to 1. Even money was bet that Taft would get more electoral votes than Roosevelt. Odds of 7 to 10 were asked that Roosevelt would receive a majority of the popular vote over all the candidates. A Wall Street man says he has $1,000 to bet even that Teddy will carry 15 States. The New York papers make similar quotations every day, just as if betting had its effect on the campaign. Probably it has more than we imagine, since the sports are generally the best posted men in the country.

There is considerable talk about the flopping of the Hon. William Randolph Hearst. Oh well, but hasn't he contracted the habit?

THE SCOTTISH CHIEF

Editor W. B. Harker, of the Scottish Chief, is one of the livest newspaper men in North Carolina. He publishes a good newspaper and never fails to speak out whether he is right or wrong. He is always right, because an editor is always right when he expresses his honest convictions. If he is wrong it is only a matter of judgment. However, we have drifted away from the subject, for we wanted to congratulate Editor Harker upon getting out an extra giving the news from the Robeson county primaries. This thing of extras is nothing new for the Scottish Chief. It is always on the job, and extras are issued when the occasion calls for it. Maxton is to be congratulated upon having a paper which seeks to serve the public interest. Maxton has a virile newspaper in the Scottish Chief.

Commissioner of Internal Revenue Cabell reports that during the past year Americans smoked eleven billion cagarettes. No wonder men part their hair in the middle and take steps like a marionette.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Yet it would be a mistake to assume that there are no bulls left. There are bulls. They aver that the believers in still lower prices are taking too much for granted. Something may yet overtake the crop. September as well as August must be favorable if the crop is to be large.

Three men were standing on the street in Fayetteville talking politics—all men who take an active interest in political affairs and are in position to keep pretty well in touch with the folks. One of the three was a Simmons Democrat, another an anti-Simmons Democrat with strong Clark inclinations and the third a Republican. A gentleman from another section of the State came along and asked how Simmons stands in Cumberland. That he would get fully 65 per cent of the Democratic vote of the county was the answer upon which all three agreed. The results of Major W. H. Bernard's inquiry and investigation, as reported by him to the Wilmington Star of last Sunday and printed in another column of this paper, is right in line with the opinion of the three men above mentioned.—Fayetteville Index.

Bulls argue that a big crop has not been raised and that it may not be raised. Besides they contend that a decline of nearly two cents a pound offsets all the bearish arguments that the most rampant bear can offer. Also the bulls think that the short side has recently been greatly increased and that it threatens to become as swollen as the long side was recently. Furthermore, they think that the textile industries after a momentary pause will go ahead and in any case may be bound sooner or later to participate in the general prosperity which they think awaits this country, especially as they think the political situation is less threatening than it was and that sudden and violent changes in the tariff are highly improbable. The general idea here at present, however, is that while rallies at the expense of the shorts are probable from time to time, yet unless the crop meets with a serious mishap, the general direction of prices for a time at least is likely to be downward.

The executive committee of the newly organized Progressive party is to meet in Greensboro, Saturday, to name the time and place for holding its State convention. The Observer learns that there is a strong sentiment for holding this convention in Charlotte, on the heels of the convention of the regular Republican party, which meets here on September 4th. Some Charlotte Progressives even favor holding it on the same day. We do not know whether or not that would be too much of a good thing, but Charlotte could stand it. The Republicans could meet in the auditorium and the Progressives in the Academy of Music, with the dead line drawn across Independence Square. While the town could handle both of them, it would be better to have the conventions on separate days. Charlotte would be glad of a chance to try its hand on the entertainment of each. —Charlotte Observer.

The passage of the wool bill over the President's veto is a victory that counts. Whatever the Senate may do the House has gone on record by an overwhelming majority for tariff revision downward. That's the way the Democrats can really put the President in a hole. It can't be done by playing petty politics, tampering with the civil service and putting the merit system club in Taft's hands to strike back with. The tariff is the livest issue of the time. By their sincere efforts at revision downward, by refusing to play small politics with it, the Democrats have played the best kind kind of big politics.—Baltimore Evening Sun.

TYPOS SELECT NASHVILLE

To Hold 1913 Convention There—Trouble In Woman's Auxiliary

Cleveland, August 15.—Nashville, Tenn., today was chosen as the 1913 convention city of the International Typographical Union by the convention in session here. The result of the balloting showed 292 votes for Nashville and 30 for New York.

The only roll call of today's session came on a resolution to establish an employment bureau. It carried after a heated debate.

A thousand telegrams were sent from the convention hall to Senators and Congressmen at Washington protesting against the proposed increase in postal rates on second-class mail matter.

A a result of a break in the Woman's Auxiliary over the right to recognition of Mrs. Frank N. Long, of Cincinnati, international secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Long and a portion of the delegates convened separately, Springfield, Ohio, president protem., made plans to reorganize no organization or convention other than their own.

MAJOR R. M. SULLY DEAD

Served Throughout War and Then Became Railroad Officer

Petersburg, Va. Aug. 15.—Major R. M. Sully died last night at his home on Union street. He was born in Petersburg January 31st, 1835. He was educated at Hale's School, Ellington, Conn. After leaving school he went with Major Lewis Armistead on a government survey of the military road from Independence, Mo., to Sante Fe, N. M. He returned to Alexandria and when 25 years of age, at the outbreak of the war, became a private in the 17th Virginia Regiment. Later he served on the staff of Gen. Joseph E. Johnston and then with General Ewell, with whom he went through the valley campaign. He was on the staff of Gen. A. P. Hill when General Hill died near Petersburg.

Major Sully was engineer and designer of the Confederate fortifications on Chapin's farm and Drewry Bluff and fought in the following battles: Manassas, Cross Keys, Winchester, Harper's Ferry, Fort Republic, seven days fight around Richmond, Fredericksburg, Spotsylvania, Cold Harbor, Siege of Petersburg, the Wilderness and at Gettysburg. He was put in command of the counter mines after the battle of the Crater.

After the war Major Sully rebuilt the Manassas Gap Railroad and later was connected with the Virginia and Tennessee Railroad. He subsequently went to Gordonsville to live and served with the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, then with the Richmond and Danville, being stationed in Richmond. While still in the service of this road he removed to Greensboro, N. C.

Major Sully came to Petersburg in January, 1875, as general freight and passenger agent of the Atlantic Coast Line. He was later made superintendent, in which position he remained until his retirement a few years ago. He is survived by his widow, one daughter and one sister, all of Petersburg.

CONFESSIONS OF A YEAR.

Notorious Criminals Who Have Admitted Their Guilt.

(From the New York Times.)

The confession of "Jack" Rose, Harry Vallon and "Bridgey" Webber, implicated with Police Lieut. Becker in the murder of Herman Rosenthal, make a notable addition to a list of similar utterances within a twelvemonth. For the confession by James B. McNamara and his brother John who dynamited the Los Angeles Times building; this reason was given by their attorney: "They were counseled to confess because that was the best thing they could do, in the opinion of counsel."

Pastor Richeson's confession, he said, was extorted "under the lashings of remorse"; the real reason was that the State's case against him was conclusive, and he "could wish to live."

The miserable Swartz took his father's advice to end his own life, writing, "I'm insane," but only when the officers of the law were upon him.

District Attorney Whitman obtained from Paul Geidel, the murderer of William Henry Jackson, eight separate versions of his confession, but the evidence gathered against him was enough to convict him without confessing at all.

There is no "science" of criminology; there is no formulated body of rules and theory for the detection of crime and its prevention. But with the advance of civilization, the means of gaining and spreading intelligence, of gathering evidence of identifying the accused and the guilty and of stripping off their disguises are becoming more sure and efficient. When rogues are often constrained to confess their misdeeds, honest men breathe easier.

CHRISTIANS MASSACRED

Men and Women Reported Murdered By the Wholesale

Cettinje, Montenegro, August 16.—Terrible reports gained circulation in the capital tonight of another massacre of Christians by Mohammedans in Albania.

A band of Mohammedan aranuts, supported by Turkish troops today attacked a section of the Christian population in the Berana district of Albania which lies close to the Montenegro frontier.

A fierce fight ensued and women and children are reported to have been murdered by the wholesale. Many girls were made captive and carried off by the Mohammedans.

A large number of Christians and their families have fled the territory and taken refuge in Montenegro.

The government has ordered the Mow Gen Vukotics to proceed to the frontier and to personally take charge of the situation in an effort to maintain order.

DELAWARE LEADS THE NAVY.

Heads List of American Battleships in Fighting Efficiency.

Washington, Aug. 16.—The big battleship Delaware is the ideal fighter of the American navy. That vessel stands at the head of the list of the 21 battleships of the navy in battle efficiency for the year 1911-1912.

Her final merit figures, as computed at the Navy Department, give the Delaware a rating of 74.758 per cent. The Colorado is second, with 68.301, and the Maryland third with 65.952. Battle efficiency is computed from the ship's record at target practice and general fighting condition.

In the torpedo boat destroyer class the Preston heads a list of 23 vessels, scoring 81.980. The Monaghan is a close second, with 80.074, and the McCall third, with 79.361.

MARINES GO TO MANAGUA

Reinforcements From Panama and From Cruiser Expected

Washington, August 15.—The collier Justin, the State Department learned today, arrived at Corinto yesterday with marines under command of Major Medley Butler to reinforce the 100 American bluejackets of the gunboat Annapolis, now stationed in the besieged city of Managua.

Capt. Warren J. Terhune, of the Annapolis, which is anchored at this port, landed the force of marines which comprises 354 men and 11 officers. Captain Terhune accompanied the expedition and commanded the combined forces of Americans in their work of protecting the lives and property of American and other foreign residents of Managua. It is believed the force of marines was immediately dispatched to Managua.

The bombardment of the capital, which was begun last Sunday by the rebels under Generals Mena and Zeledon, was still going on yesterday.

Because of delayed cable advices to the Navy and State Departments officials here can only conjecture what happened after the arrival of the marines on the scene of hostilities.

How this force has been used depends entirely upon the will of American Minister Weitzel, but as he has already protested to the rebels against the bombardment of Managua, filled as the capital is with women, children and non-combatants, it is believed he has driven the insurgents away from their positions and stopped the bombardment. If his force is not sufficient for this purpose, officials feel assured that he will hold the city until reinforcements from Panama or the bluejackets of the Denver, now on the way to Corinto, can be placed at his disposal.

The State Department has let it be understood that it does not propose to tolerate the lawless shelling and killing of helpless women and children, the endangering of American lives and the seizure and destruction of American property. The officials are quite emphatic in pointing out that General Mena, the head of the revolution, has completely alienated the sympathies of this government by his conduct of the rebellion.

MORE AID FOR ALASKANS

Potatoes Sent to Kodiak Island To Prevent Scurvy Outbreak

Washington, August 16.—Alaska has not yet recovered from the effects of the volcano eruption of Mount Katmai in June and the Federal government will be obliged to furnish emergency rations and supplies to many persons for some time to come.

The people of Kodiak Island are in need of the quickest attention. Their vegetable crops were ruined. Secretary MacVeagh has ordered 10 tons of potatoes from Seattle to prevent scurvy breaking out among the inhabitants.

Afognak Island is recovering to some extent, but will need emergency rations during the coming Winter.

The people on the mainland who were rendered homeless by the eruption have erected a new town on Ivanoff Bay, 15 miles west of the volcano, and chirstened it Perry, in honor of Captain Perry, of the revenue cutter Manning, whose heroic work in rescuing 500 persons during the catastrophe brought forth a letter of commendation from President Taft. The new village is flourishing and needs no assistance.

ANNUAL ENCAMPMENT OVER

Coast Artillery Corps Broke Camp at Fort Caswell Yesterday Morning—Fine Showing Made This Year by All

The six companies composing the Coast Artillery Corps, North Carolina National Guard, broke camp yesterday morning after their annual period of instruction and practice at Fort Caswell, and arrived in the city during the morning and afternoon, the five outside companies taking trains for their home cities, and the local company, the W. L. I., dispersing here. The encampment was a most successful one from all standpoints, though the pleasure of the soldier lads was marred by the death of Adjutant General R. L. Leinster, which occurred here Wednesday.

Though the usual military discipline prevailed, and the artillerymen had plenty of work each day, they found time, nevertheless, to engage in swimming, fishing, sailing, etc., and everybody reported a most enjoyable 10 days.

The attendance at this encampment was very good, there being about an average of from 45 to 50 men in each company. The companies composing the Coast Artillery Corps are from Wilmington, Charlotte, Greensboro, Salisbury, Newbern and Hendersonville.

The post commander at Fort Caswell was Col. Bennett, U. S. A., but Captain Gilmer, U. S. A., was detailed by the War Department as instructor inspector. His assistants, besides the officers of the post, were Capt. F. L. Dengler, from Fort Moultrie, Ga., who had entire charge of the Wilmington Company; Lieut. John Maynard, who had charge of the Hendersonville Company; Lieut. Titus, who had charge of the Salisbury Company.

All the companies made splendid showings in the drill and target work. In the sub-calibre practice each company did good work, none scoring less than one or two hits. In the service practice, Greensboro, with the mortars, made the highest score, getting 100 per cent. Lieutenant Stovall, of Fort Caswell, directed this company in the target work. The Salisbury Company made one hit out of two shots and the Hendersonville Company one hit out of three shots. Newbern also made one hit out of three shots, while the Wilmington Company hit the front end of the float upon which the target was placed. However, as the float was hit several feet to one side of the mast poles of the target, the company was not allowed a hit.

The Hendersonville Company is a new company in the Coast Artillery and it operated the six-inch battery, this being the first time that this battery has been used in several years.

Lieut. Ljoungsteadt, of Fort Caswell, had charge of the fire control section of the eight-inch battery, and his instructions were most favorably commented on by every one.

One feature of the encampment was the election of Capt. Kuykendall, of Greensboro, as a major, in place of Maj. Max. L. Barker, of Salisbury, who has been advanced to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel. The latter is prominently mentioned in the corps as a candidate for the office of adjutant general, made vacant by the death of Adjutant General Leinster, which occurred here, where he was stricken with paralysis while on his way to the encampment. Lieutenant Colonel Barker is a favorite in the corps and the was a personal friend of General Leinster. It is said that a petition signed by a large number of names will be sent to Governor Kitchin advocating the appointment of Lieutenant Colonel Barker to the unexpired term of General Leinster.

The following are extracts from the report of Capt. F. L. Dengler, U. S. A., who acted as instructor and inspector for the Second Company, or the Wilmington Light Infantry, of this city:

"Conduct of men off duty; most excellent. The enlisted personnel of this organization is, as a whole, of a very high degree in intelligence, breeding and general standing in civil life. The men have pride of organization to a marked degree, are well handled, and have behaved in an orderly manner at all times.

"Discipline: discipline was most excellent. The attitude of the men toward their officers was at all times respectful and loyal. Reprimands were administered by the officers when necessary, with dignity and firmness. The commanding officer of the organization is loyally supported by his junior officers and non-commissioned officers, in maintaining discipline, and t wah noted that all orders given by him were promptly and cheerfully obeyed.

"Liquor: No evidence of liquor, or intoxication, was ever noted in this organization during the period of the encampment."

Capt. Dengler reports that the work of the company in the sub calibre practice as well as the service practice was very satisfactory. He speaks very highly of the conduct of the officers and the enlisted personnel of the company at the batery, stating that no movements of the drill were slighted, every safety precaution was cheerfully observed and no attempt was made to sacrifice accuracy and safety for excessive speed of piece service. The report says that during the firing and service practice the men were col and collected to a marked degree. It further states that the work of gun section, or battery personnel, was most excellent at all times, the officers and men being keen and anxious to learn their duties, and following all instructions carefully and literally.

Capt. Dengler, in his report, makes two recommendations with reference to the local company that are considered important. They are as follows:

"It is recommended that arrangements be perfected in the way of free transportation between the home station of the company, Wilmington, N. C., and this post, so that the organization may be brought to the batteries for instructions monthly, or that they be furnished with dummy armament in their armory.

"It is recommended that the next annual encampment be held at some other post. The encampment is in the nature of a vacation for the majority of the officers and men, they are desirious of a change of scene, and it is believed that it would render recruitment easier and result in greater contentment."

TWO FOREIGNERS ARRESTED

Are Believed to Be Men Who Swindled Ladies at Wrightsville Beach With "Linen" Peddling Game Some Days Ago

Two foreigners, one who gave his name as Dominico Oreugo, and the other whose name as he pronounced it sounded like "Sanitago," were arrested yesterday by deputy sheriffs on warrants charging them with obtaining money under false pretenses by peddling what they represented as linen, but which upon delivery turned out to be an ordinary grade of cotton cloth.

The two men are believed to be the ones who swindled a large number of ladies living at Wrightsville Beach, mention of which was made in The Star several days ago. Oreugo gave $100 bond for his appearance before Justice Harriss at a preliminary hearing Monday, but "Santiago" was not able to raise a similar amount and went to jail in default.

Deputies John H. Davis and E. C. Reynolds have been working on the case ever since the outraged ladies of Wrightsville Beach first reported the matter after learning that they had been duped. Their statement was that a man came to their cottages showing samples of fine linen cloths, which he said he was selling very cheap. He took their orders and also their money in advance, and later delivered the goods, which upon close examination proved to be nothing but cheap cotton imitations of the linen samples. The officers have not ascertained whether one man, or two, did the swindling at Wrightsville Beach, but from the descriptions that have been given them they believe both men under arrest were in a partnership in the matter. "Santiago" is believed to be the man who sold most of the "linen" at Wrightsville Beach.

The officers were hot on the trail of the two men all day Thursday, but it was 1 o'clock yesterday morning before they located Oreugo on the second floor of the City Quick Lunch restaurant, on Princess street, between Second and Third streets. He was placed in jail and was taken before Justice Harriss yesterday morning, being released when he gave the bond for his appearance.

Yesterday, just before noon, Deputies Reynolds and Davis heard that the man supposed to be the principal in the scheme, was in the vicinity of Hilton Park. They immediately went there and after a search found a man hiding behind a tree. He started to run, but they covered him with their revolvers and commanded him to halt. He did so and they placed him under arrest. So far as any of the officers have been able to understand, his name is Santiago, or something like that. He could not give bond and was sent to jail.

The preliminary hearing will be before Justice Harriss Monday, as the officers desire time to work up more evidence.

GAMES ALMOST ASSURED

Nothing to Prevent League Baseball Contests Here Labor Day

There is every probability now that the Greenville and Spartanburg, S. C., teams in the Carolina Association, will play two games of baseball here Labor Day, when the schedule comes to a close, and also a post season series of five or seven games the week beginning with Labor Day.

As will be remembered, Manager Thomas Stouch, of the Greenville team, wrote Mr. Wm. Struthers, Jr., a few days ago asking if the games could be arranged, and Mr. Struthers withheld a definite reply until he could confer with Mr. A. B. Skelding, general manager of the Tidewater Power Company, as to whether or not transportation could be arranged for. Mr. Skelding was out of the city at the time, but when he returned Mr. Struthers asked him about the matter, and yesterday morning he was assured that the Tidewater Power Company would be only too glad to furnish transportation, placing 18 suburban cars at the disposal of the fans.

Accordingly, Mr. Struthers Wednesday wrote Manager Strouch at Spartanburg to the effect that the transportation would be furnished and that the games would be largely attended. While no reply was received last night it is expected that Mr. Stouch will write today, and that he will announce for a certainty that the games will be played here.

The Wilmington fans will await with interest a definite announcement that the games are to be played, for they are anxious for an opportunity to see some professional ball once more. The Greenville and Spartanburg teams are close together in the percentage column and they are oldtime rivals, so that excellent contests may be expected.

Funeral of Mr. H. G. McFarlane

The funeral of Mr. Henry G. McFarlane, who was drowned while out boating at Spring Lake, N. J., Thursday afternoon, will be held at the lodge in Oakdale cemetery Sunday morning immediately upon the arrival of the train from the North, on which the body will be brought to this city. Rev. Wm. E. Cox, rector of St. John's Episcopal church, will conduct the services. Mr. McFarlane lived in Wilmington until 10 or 12 years ago and has many friends in this city who were grieved to learn of his tragic death.

THE SOUTH'S RESOURCES

Will be Advertised in the West by the Agricultural and Immigration Department of Coast Line. The Exhibit.

The agricultural and immigration department of the Atlantic Coast Line is getting up an exhibit of farm products, vegetables and fruits and will take this exhibit to the West the latter part of this month, to be shown at various Western State Fairs, with a vitw of showing the resources of the territory through which this line operates.

The Coast Line has had one of its new steel-framed express cars overhauled and painted up in a suitable manner for the purpose of transporting the exhibit.

It has also advertised in the farm papers of the West and in the local papers at the points where the exhibits will be made, and it is expected that the exhibit will attract a great deal of attention, and should be the means of bringing a great many settlers to the "Nation's Garden Spot."

Messrs. Wilbur McCoy, agricultural and immigration agent, Jacksonville, Fla., and E. N. Clark, agricultural and immigration agent, Wilmington, N. C., will be in charge of this exhibit. They will distribute illustrated literature giving information about the South, and will, no doubt, be called upon to answer numerous questions.

The success of their undertaking will depend, to a certain extent, upon the co-operation they receive from the farmers going the ine of the railroad. In order to get the best results from this public-spirited work of the Atlantic Coast Line, it will be necessary for the farmers who have suitable products for this exhibit, such as native forage, corn, small grains, good samples of fruits and vegetables put up in glass, to communicate at once with Mr. E. N. Clark, of Wilmington. The Atlantic Coast Line also is very anxious to borrow or buy a few good agricultural views.

As Messrs. McCoy and Clark will leave Wilmington August 27th, with their exhibit, it is very important that those who have anything that they think of special interest communicate at once with the officials of agricultural and immigration department.

A SAD DEATH.

Adopted Orphan Dies of Lock Jaw in Fayetteville Hospital.

Yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer carries the following story:

A sad death occurred in St. Luke's Hospital at midnight last night when little William Thomas Stamps, adopted son of Prof. Preston Stamps, died of lock jaw, in his seventh year. William dropped an ax upon his foot last Saturday, inflicting an ugly wound, from which lock jaw developed. Prof. Stamps, who lives near Alderman, in the lower part of the county, brought him here to St. Luke's Hospital at noon yesterday, and he died there last night. The body was taken to J. M. Rogers' undertaking establishment, where it was prepared for burial, and at 1:30 this afternoon it was carried to Rockfish Presbyterian church, seven miles south of here and the funeral services were held there, conducted by Rev. K. A. McLeod.

The story of the short span of life and the death of this little boy is a sad one. Nearly seven years ago Prof. Stamps formed the acquaintance of Mr. and Mrs. William Roswell in Vance county, this State. Shortly after meeting them, the couple returned to their home in Virginia, where Mrs. Roswell gave birth to a son, after which she died. About a month later the father passed away in a hospital in Richmond, and his dying request was that Prof. Stamps should adopt his son.

So very shortly a little baby boy, weak and thin and sickly, came by express in a basket to Fayetteville, and Prof. Stamps and his good wife, who had no children, took him to their hearts and loved and cherished him. He grew into a bright, sweet child, with a sunny disposition and a busy little brain, winning the hearts of all around him. He became the apple of his foster father's eye, and the grief of the good man as he told the story today was heart-rending.

"GENERAL" BARFIELD ARRESTED

Negro Charged With Violating the Prohibition Law.

"General" Barfield, colored, was arrested last night about 11:30 o'clock at his home in Parsley's alley by Plainclothes Officer Leon George on a warrant charging him with violating the prohibition law. He was locked up at the City Hall, and his case will be investigated in the Recorder's court this morning.

The warrant upon which the "General" was arrested was issued on the information and belief of Officer George. Earlier in the night Hattie Gause, colored, was arrested on a charge of vagrancy. She appeared to be under the influence of whiskey, and upon being questioned stated that she got it from Barfied. Nancy Pickett, colored, who was with her, corroborated her in this statement. The two women are being held as witnesses.

Col. E. F. MacRae Ill

The Maxton Scottish Chief, of last week, says: "The many friends of Col. E. F. MacRae were grieved Monday to learn that he had been taken very ill Sunday night. He was heard to call his nephew, Master Murdock MacRae, at the MacRae hotel. When his room was entered in response to the call he was unconscious. Dr. Kirkpatrick was called and applied remedies for resusciation to which his heart, which was the cause of the attack, responded. He had another attack Monday morning but rallied and has been improving ever since. He was taken to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Williams on Tuesday. Col. MacRae is one of our most useful citizens and his illness caused much anxiety to our whole citizenship."

INSURANCE MEETING ENDS

Annual Gathering of Agents of Jefferson Standard Adjourned Yesterday—Prizes Awarded—Social Features Enjoyed

With a splendid business session yesterday morning, a sailing and fishing party in the afternoon and oyster roast in the evening, the annual meeting of the agents of the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Company, of Greensboro, which has been in session at the Seashore Hotel since Friday morning, came to an end. Many of the agents leave this morning for their homes, but others will remain over Sunday. It was one of the largest attended, most enthusiastic and profitable meetings the agents have ever held, and the visitors enjoyed every minute of their stay at the resort.

The closing business session was presided over by Mr. P. D. Gold, Jr., vice president of the Jefferson Standard. Two telegrams were received from Mr. Geo. A. Grimsley, of Greensboro, the newly elected president of the company, in which he urged the agents to put forth even greater effort the ensuing year for increasing the business of the Jefferson Standard, which is to be merged with the Greensboro Life and the Security Life & Annuity Company.

Mr. F. L. Cole, of Wilson, spoke on the subject, "How to Make Him Take It." It was a well-prepared address and the agents listened to him very attentively. "Agency Development" was the subject of another fine address, made by Mr. W. A. Berry, of Birmingham. All agency managers spoke on the topic and the discussion was very interesting and instructive.

Mr. J. T. Liles, of Orangeburg, S. C., president of the agency organization, read a resolution that had been adopted by the agency forces emphasizing loyalty of the force to the new officers elected and congratulating the company upon its splendid success in the past and expressing the belief that still greater things will be achieved in the future.

Mr. Chas. W. Gold, secretary of the company and superintendent of agents, then presented the prizes offered during the year. Mr. J. T. Liles, of Orangeburg, S. C., received a handsome traveling bag, he having paid for the largest volume of business during the contest; Capt. T. S. Franklin, of Charlotte, was awarded a handsome silver-handled umbrella for having paid for business the premiums on which aggregated the largest amount, and Mr. W. E. Derrick, also of Orangeburg, S. C., received a smoking set for having paid for the largest number of applications.

This was the concluding feature of the business session and the meeting then adjourned. In the afternoon the agents, or most of them, went on a sailing and fishing trip outside and upon their return an oyster roast was enjoyed at the Hammocks.

The address delivered by Col. Walker Taylor, of this city Thursday was still the talk among the agents yesterday. All declared it one of the most interesting and instructive addresses they had ever listened to on a similar occasion.

CAME HERE TO WED.

Miss Mable McCotter and Mr. D. E. Adams Plight Their Troth.

Accompanied by the groom's sister, Miss Pearl Adams, Mr. D. E. Adams, of Lindens, and Miss Mable McCotter of Grifton, came to the city Thursday and were married by Rev. G. T. Adams, pastor of the Fifth Street Methodist church, and an uncle of the groom at the church parsonage that afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams then went to Wrightsville Beach, registering at The Oceanic Hotel, where they will spend some time. Miss Adams is visiting her uncle, Rev. G. T. Adams, at his home on South Fifth street.

The groom is a prominent young man in his section and possesses a splendid farm. He became acquainted with his bride while she was engaged in teaching music at Lindens. Both have many friends who will be interested in the announcement of their wedding.

Funeral of Miss Sutton.

Yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer: "The funeral of Miss Ida Sutton, who died in Greensboro Wednesday, while on the way home from Montreal, was conducted from the residence on Cool Spring street, at 10:30 o'clock this morning, Rev. W. M. Fairley, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and Rev. L. E. Thompson, pastor of Hay Street Methodist church, officiating. Miss Sutton was a member of the Presbyterian church. The large congregation attending and the profusion and beauty of the floral offerings attested the high esteem in which deceased was held. Following were the pall-bearers: Honorary, Hon Chas. G. Rose, Dr. Jno. A. MacKethan, L. C. Wooten, H. A. Rankin; active Lieut. A. A. MacKeithan, J. M. DeVane, Jas. C. McDiarmid, E. H. Williamson, P. H. Haigh, Sheriff N. H. McGeachy."

Clarkton Planing Mills.

This week's Bladen Journal says: "The Clarkton Planing Mill Co., has changed hands and we hope soon to hear the whistles blow. The parties interested are the Stout Bros. Lumber Co., of Siler City, N. C. These gentlemen are prominent lumber men of the central portion of the State, and have been very successful. We consider they have the best proposition of its kind in Eastern North Carolina. The new owners have The Journal's best wishes for their success."

Baseball This Afternoon.

Two interesting games of baseball will be played in the City League series at Hilton Park this afternoon, the first being called at 3 o'clock. It will be between the Amateurs and the Company B team of the Boys' Brigade, both strong aggregations. The second game, between the Giants and the Athletics, will be called at 5 o'clock, and will also be a snappy contest. No admission is charged and everybody is cordially invited to witness the games.

PROBABLE CAUSE FOUND

Southerland Sent Over to Recorder's Court for Trial Next Week

A. P. Southernland, a white merchant of Macomber's station, near Wrightsville Sound, was given preliminary hearing on a charge of violating the prohibition law before Justice Harriss yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock and upon probable cause being found, the case was sent over to the Recorder's court for trial next Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Bond was fixed at $200, which the defendant gave. Southerland was arrested some days ago, and has been on bond since.

Among the witnesses who testified that they had bought beer from Southerland during the present Summer were Johnnie Lawhorn and Will Walters, white, and Jim Jones, Sol Jenkins, Jackson Brown, Ike Barfield, Osa Williams, Frank Martin and Dave Lemmons, all colored. Ed. Foy, white, another witness testified that he had never purchased beer from the defendant, while several other witnesses testified that they had seen him buy beer there.

Bulletin on Fruit Trees.

The Audubon Nurseries announce in an advertisement elsewhere in today's paper, that they will furnish free to anyone applying for same, the bulletin recently published by the Department of Agriculture of North Carolina on the treatment and protection of fruit trees. The bulletin gives a full description of the San Jose Scale that is so disastrous to the growth of fruit trees if its attacks are not checked promptly; discusses the best methods of orchard spraying and treats of orchard protection in general. The bulletin will prove of value to all who are interested in fruit trees. Those wishing copies of the bulletin should apply to C. W. M. Hess, Manager of the Audubon Nursery, P. O. Box 731, Wilmington, N. C.

Charged With Slander.

Carl Johnson, a young white man of Delgado, was given a hearing before Justice Bornemann yesterday morning at 10 o'clock on a charge of criminally slandering Miss Pearl Grady, of Delgado. Probable cause was found and Johnson was sent to jail in default of $200 bond to await trial in the Recorder's court. The warrant for Johnson's arrest was sworn out by N. R. Rohan, of Delgado, step-father of the young woman, who alleges that the defendant made derogatory remarks about her character.

BASEBALL TODAY.

Fort Caswell and Strong Delgado Team to Meet at League Park

Having failed in its efforts to get a game with the Atlantic Coast Line team, the Delgado baseball management yesterday concluded arrangements with the Fort Caswell team for a game of baseball this afternoon at League Park at 3:30 o'clock. The team will arrive this morning and will be in fine fettle for the game this afternoon. The public is cordially invited and is assured of a great contest. The Delgado team is now one of the strongest hereabouts and is confident of winning while the soldier boys are none the less determined that victory shall perch upon their banner. Excellent street car schedule is promised and everybody will find the game an opportunity of spending an afternoon quite pleasantly.

The Recorder's Court

The cases tried in the Recorder's court yesterday were few and of almost no interest whatever. Willie Merritt and Giles Bryant, two colored boys, were tried on a charge of affray and upon being found guilty were taxed the costs. A. Nixon and Geo. Nixon, both colored, were found guilty of excavating the streets without a permit and judgment was suspended on payment of costs. James Pearson, colored, was assessed costs for violating the dog ordinance.

TENNESSEE AND LIQUOR

Democratic State Platform Adopted After Lengthy Debate

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 16.—Shortly before 2 o'clock this morning the Democratic State convention adopted a platform for its candidate for Governor, Benton McMillan. Main interest centered in the plank on liquor legislation on which the platform submitted two reports. The minority report, which was adopted, pledged the party to retention of the old four-mile law as it existed before the Statewide prohibition statute with modification of the existing laws as affecting Nashville, Chattanooga and Memphis, these modifications to be accompanied by regulation, high license and segragation.

The platform also declared for a modification of the law prohibiting the manufacture of loquor, permitting distilleries but prohibiting sales by them in dry counties. The majority report quoted Woodrow Wilson as holding the question a moral and social one which should be left to the Legislature.

NEGRESS ELECTROCUTED

Sat In Same Chair Occupied by Henry Clay Beattie

Richmond, Va., August 16.—Virginia Christian, negress, aged 17 years, was electrocuted in the penitentiary here today for the murder of Mrs. Ida Virginia Belote, her mistress, at Hampton, Va. The girl was dead in 7 minutes and 23 seconds. The officials withheld details of the execution because of the public clamor against the execution of a woman. She was the first of her sex to be executed in this State and sat in the same chair in which Henry Clay Beattie was executed last November. The girl went to death without displaying a particle of fear, and walked unassisted to the chair.

THIS PATIENT 114 YEARS OLD

Negress In Montevue Said to Have Been Born In 1979

Frederick, Md., Aug. 15.—Discovery was made at Montevue Hospital yesterday of an indigent feeble-minded patient 114 years old—believed to be the oldest person in the State and probably in the country.

The patient is Sarah Ann Lyles, a negress, and she was brought from Charles county in 1909. At that time she was entered as considerably over 100 years old, and an investigation just made shows she was born in 1799. She has not been sick since coming to the hospital.

She moves about with remarkable ease for one of her years.

CRITICAL TIME OF WOMAN'S LIFE

From 40 to 50 Years of Age. How It May Be Passed in Safety.

Odd, Va.:—"I am enjoying better health than I have for 20 years, and I believe I can safely say now that I am a well woman. I was reared on a farm and had all kinds of heavy work to do which caused the troubles that came on me later. For five years during the Change of Life I was not able to lift a pail of water. I had hemorrhages which would last for weeks and I was not able to sit up in bed. I suffered a great deal with my back and was so nervous I could scarcely sleep at night, and I did not do any housework for three years.

"Now I can do as much work as any woman of my age in the county, thanks to the benefit I have received from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I recommend your remedies to all suffering women."—Mrs. MARTHA L. HOLLOWAY, Odd, Va.

No other medicine for woman's ills has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement. We know of no other medicine which has such a record of success as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For more than 30 years it has been the standard remedy for woman's ills.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

BEGGED RIDE; TRIED TO ROB.

Poole Turns in Carriage to Face Pistol in Assailant's Hand.

Taneytown, Mr., Aug. 16.—Attempted robbery in return for a ride, was the reward Halbert Poole, a horse dealer, of this place, received Tuesday night. His assailants were two men who had begged a ride in his carriage. The county authorities have full descriptions of the highwaymen.

Poole, who usually carried a large sum of money for use in his business, was returning home from Kee-Mar and the men were picked up four miles from this place. They sat on the rear seat. After driving a mile, Mr. Poole was startled to hear a voice asking, "How much change have you?" Looking back he faced a pistol in the hand of one of the men.

He quickly knocked the revolver out of the man's hand and grappled with him.

The horses continued trotting down the road approached several houses in which lights were burning. Here the strangers leaped from the carriage and disappeaed in the woods. Mr. Poole drove to the Grange Fair, Ohler's Grove, and notified Deputy Sheriff Bachmann and Constable Miller.

NO NEW CANAL BILL PROTEST.

Britain Not Discriminated Against In Coastwise Shipping.

Washington, Aug. 16.—It is said to reasonably certain that no further protest will be made by Great Britain on behalf of English mercantile interests against the Panama Canal bill if it finally takes the form reported yesterday from the conference committee.

The British objection was aimed especially at discrimination against British shipping. As such shipping is not now privileged to enter into the American coastwise trade, which alone is to receive favored treatment in the canal, that objection is overcome.

It is regarded as possible, however, that in deference to Canada, the British Government may be led to object to the prohibition against the passage of railroad owned ships, but State Department officials are confident this objection would not hold under the treaty as the prohibition will apply to American vessels as well as others, and there could be no charge of discrimination.

A fool insists on having his own way, but a wise man merely has it and says nothing.

TUBERCULOSIS CASES.

Physicians Asked Not to Send Dying Patients to Southwest.

New York, Aug. 15.—Physicians in all of the Eastern and Southern States will be asked by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis to stop sending consumptives in the last stages of tuberculosis and without sufficient funds to the southwestern part of the United States in search of health, according to an announcement made today by that association.

While it is impossible to tell accurately how many consumptives there are at present living in the States of Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, Southern California and western Texas, it is probable that no less than 10 per cent. of the 6,000,000 people in this territory have tuberculosis themselves or have come to the West because some member of their family has had it. Every year, the health authorities estimate, not less than 10,000 consumptives hopelessly diseased, come West to die. For these cases, the climate of this section of the country can do nothing and they are compelled to die in strange surroundings and thousands of miles from home and friends.

The National Association points out further that from 50 to 60 per cent. of these advanced cases are too poor to provide the proper necessaries of life and they are either starved to death or compelled to accept the meagre charity which this part of the country affords.

In an effort to stop the migration of consumptives of this class to the Southwest. the National Association will ask physicians to be more careful in ordering patients to go away, and will also ask railroads to discontinue their practice of selling "charity" tickets to those who cannot afford to pay full fare. "No consumptive should go to Colorado. California, or the West for his health," says the association, "unless he has a good chance for recovery from his disease, and unless especially he has at least $1,000 to spend for this purpose, over and above what his family may need.

"Tuberculosis can be cured in any part of the United States, and it is not necessary for a tuberculosis paand if they cannot do this, to take the cure in their own homes, under the tient to go West. Whenever possible, the National Association urges tuberculosis patients who have not ample funds to go to a santorium near home, direction of a physician."

STATEMENT FROM HILLES.

Gives Republicans 34 States, Democrats 10, and Progressives None.

Chicago, Aug. 14.—Charles D. Hilles, chairman of the Republican National Committee, tonight issued a statement claiming 34 States with a total electoral vote of 384 for the Republican ticket, and conceding 10 States, with an electoral vote of 114, to the Democratic party, and listing four States with an electoral vote of 34 as doubtful.

Chairman Hilles concedes no State to the Progressives.

Mr. Hilles also said that the new Progressive party would draw no more heavily from the Republican party than from the Democratic party.

This is going to be a great week-end at the joy spot of Wilmigton—the popular, comfortable, fascinating Bijou. Regardless of the weather the day is going to be one of triumph, because the Bijou has prepared one of the best programmes in its history for to-day, and it can safely be counted on that amusement lovers will pack their favorite theatre. Yesterday was a swell one at the Bijou, and those desiring a retreat from the sultry weather, and being "wise" to the Bijou, had a delightful time. The Bijou is always comfortable, charmingly so, due to its fine ventilating system, and the price of admission is always tin 5 cents.

To-day is going to be especially large for laughs, and this is just what the Saturday crowds want. Tired down at the end of the week the people find recreation and relaxation in the Bijou's giant fun bills every Saturday. "The Talker" is one of the chief mirth-provokers and it is a big novelty. It tells of a woman who talks folks to death. She even talks the brass buttons off a policeman.

"A Visit to Lively Town" is another great comedy for to-day. Two "Rubes" are attracted by the advertisement of a lively town and they go to investigate. The fun that arises is of the fast and furious kind.

Stil another swell anl charming film for to-day is "Wanted a Sister" It is is indeed fascinating and charming, depicting as it does college life and the antics of "Johnnies" with chorus girls.

From this trio it can readily be seen that to-day's Bijou bill is a rouser, and should not be missed.

Big Saturday at The Grand.

The Grand Theatre is going 'em all one better in its week-end bill today, offering four fine reels of the moveys and the otherwise delights that a feature of every day at The Grand Theatre for the small price of five cents. Saturday's offerings at The Grand are always good, but the bill for today perhaps will be a little better than anything yet offered as a compliment to the big week-end patronage.

The very top-liner for today is an Essanay, "The Old Wedding Dress" the tragic life story of a sweet old lady whose young love dreams are blighted by a bitter prank of fate. Redolent with tenderest of memories, this film will win its way into the hearts of every man, woman and child who sees it today. Three of the Essanay actors are seen in this picture in star portrayals and the management is certain the film will prove a strong attraction for everyone.

The other feature pictures for today are Pathe films and the subjects are "Here and There in Oregon" and "Kittens." Then in adition to these two there is the fourth of an equally pleasing interest. Everybody should visit the Grand Theatre today.

"FIGHTING JACK" HAYES DEAD.

Served in Civil War, Indian Campaigns, Cuba and Philippines.

(Special to Baltimore Sun.)

Washington, Aug. 15.—Gen. Edward Mortimer Hayes, known in the army as "Fighting Jack" and reputed to be one of the greatest Indian fighters the United States has ever known, died yesterday at Morgantown, N. C., according to a message received here to night. His death was caused by kidney disease. The body will be brought to Washington for interment in Arlington cemetery.

General Hayes, a brigadier general of the United States Army, was born in New York December 23, 1842. He enlisted in the United States Army August 28, 1855, served in the Second Cavalry in Texas under Col. Robert E Lee and Capt. Kirby-Smith until August 28, 1860. He was a first lieutenant in the Tenth Iowa Cavalry January 15, 1863, and was promoted to captain March 24, 1864, and was honorably mustered out July 24, 1865.

He served on the frontier in many Indian campaigns and in Cuba and the Philippine Islands. He was brevetted a major of volunteers March 13, 1865, "for gallant and meritorious services during the campaign in Georgia and the Carolinas." He was made a major in 1890 "for gallant services in action against Indians at Beaver Creek, Kan., October 25 and 26, 1868."

TO PROBE PATENT OFFICE.

Senate May Spend $10,000 in Examination of System.

Washington, Aug. 15.—Investigation of the condition of business in the Patent Office was provided in a resolution passed by the Senate today.

The measure authorizing the economy and efficiency commission to spend a sum not to exceed $10,000 in an examination of the system of granting patents.

Senator Sanders biterly criticised the present system of issuing patents.

"The congestion of business has zecome so great," he said, "thaat resulting conditions have made patents nothing but rights of action in the courts. They do not protect."

The resolution had passed the House.

MAKES GOOD HEALTHY FLESH

J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., Offer to Pay for Samose If it Fails.

Begin the use of Samose today, and you will soon notice a gain in good, healthy flesh to al who are thin, weak and run down, this remarkable flesh-forming food, promises plump, rosy, perfect health, vigor and vitality.

Most people eat enough to become fat; the trouble is not lack of food, but lack of assimilative power.

Samose mingles with the food that is eaten, so that it is assimilated by the blood and builds up pleasing plumptness and good healthy flesh. Those who use Samose for a week or ten days will soon notice a gain in weight and an improvement in general strength and health.

Put good solid flesh on your bones, and you will be strong and well. In no other way can this be done than by the use of Samose. It gives plumpness and physical grace to the thin and scrawny, and will make you bright, rosy and normally fat.

Samose is in tablet form, pleasant to take, and is sold by one of the most reputablye drug stores in Wilmington, under their personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction.

WRIGHTSVILLE BEACH

Miss Virginia Saunders, a charming visitor from Sumter, S. C., has returned home, much to the regret of her many friends.

Yesterday's Charlotte Observer: "Mrs. R. O. Colt and daughter, Miss Amy, have returned from a stay at Wrightsville Beach."

Matt Murphy, Esq., a well known attorney of Birmingham, returned to his home Thursday, after spending two weeks at the Seashore Hotel.

Mrs. C. P. Hammond and son, Kirby, of Birmingham, and Miss Annie Campbell, of Asheville, were among yesterday's arrivals at the Hanover Inn.

Dr. J. W. Carroll, of Wallace, arrived yesterday at the Hanover Inn to join his wife and three children, who have been at the resort for some days.

Mrs. Jesse N. Couch, wife of Manager Couch, of the Oceanic Hotel, has gone to Atlanta, Ga., where she will visit Mrs. Harry Stearns and Mrs. Joseph Raine for a few days.

Thursday's Augusta Chronicle: "Mrs. P. B. Reece, Miss Sadie Reece of Blythe, and Miss Ruby Reece, of Washington, Ga., who have been the guests of Mrs. R. J. Wilson, left yesterday for Wrightsville Beach."

Mrs. John Watt and little son, of after a pleasant visit of ten days at the Seashore Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Pemberton, of Fayetteville, who accompanied Mrs. Watts will remain at the hotel for a few days longer.

Arrangements are being made by the Tidewater Power Company, for another fireworks display in front of Lumina. The exhibition will be given Labor Day night and promises to be more elaborate than any of the three which have been given.

Mr. W. Drummond Marrow, a prominent electrical contractor of Greensboro, and an officer in the North Caro-Reidsville will return home today olina Coast Artillery Corps, is spending a few days at the Hanover Inn on his way from Fort Caswell to his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Kelly, of Birmingham, Ala., who are guests at The Oceanic Hotel, will entertain a party on a fishing trip this morning, going out in the sharpie Edwin, Capt. Salter. Another party will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Cothran, of Atlanta, who will go out in the launch "Suwannee."

Quite a delightful boating party was given Wednesday by Messrs. Merritt and Lee, of Richmond, Va., complimentary to the Misses Saunders, of Sumter, S. C., and Miss Robertson, of Columbia, S. C. Composing the party were Misses Virginia, Frances and Harriett Saunders, and Messrs. Herbert E. Merritt, Francis Harrison Lee, Bob Saunders and George A. Diebert.

With the departure of the County Commissioners, who had the ball room for their sessions, the regular morning dances at the Oceanic Hotel were resumed yesterday morning. The usual children's souvenir dance will be given next Wednesday morning. The souvenir dance was not given this week on account of the fact that the hall was in use and the litle folks are eagerly awaiting for the time for next week's event.

Yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer: "Mr. F. R. Hall and family returned last night from a visit to Wilmington and Wrightsville Beach. Mr. Hall says that Wrightsville has had many visitors this season, numbers of them coming from other States, Birmingham, Ala., being particularly well represented. The proprietor of the Seashore Hotel, at which he stopped, informed Mr. Hall that if he should take them all in, he could get enough visitors from Birmingham alone to run his hotel."

The series of aquatic events that take place today on the beach in front of Lumina will begin at 4:30 P. M. Included in the events are one-half mile canoe race, one-fourth mile swimming race and a canoe tilting contest. The canoe race that takes place today is the third race of the season's series of races anu considerable interest is being taken in this event, especially by the contestants themselves, for the reason that the results of today's race will be counted in the total for the series. Two of the series races have already taken place, and so far the contest is very even, no one having over 12 points. Two very handsome cups will be given to the winners of the season's series.

Arrivals yesterday at the Oceanic Hotel were: T. L. Finney and family, Miss Margaret Robinson, H. L. West, Birmingham, Ala.; J. F. Laney and family, Monroe, N. C.; W. J. Springfield, Mrs. A. V. Guie, Jr., Miss Frances Sullins, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. McKenzie, Atlanta, Ga.; Geo. M. Cole and family, Fairmont; J. B. Jacoby, Atlanta; W. H. Atkinson, Lewis, N. C.; J. Stone, Albany, N. Y.; Mrs. O. A. Timberline, Cincinnatii Ohio; C. Metzger, C. A. Berman, Atlanta; W. B. Barnes, Tuscaloosa, Ala.; B. C. Cothran, C. E. Rohertson, Atlanta; M. Sommer, Birmingham; Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ballinger, Miss Rosebud Land, T. S. Guffen, Gadsden, Ala.; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Washburn, Montgomery; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Anderson, J. W. Anderson, Miss Harlan, Atlanta; Mrs. G. H. Henry, Miss Goodlette, Miss King, Miss Gaines, Greenville, S. C.; Mrs. J. M. Robinson, Miss Ruby Davis, Norfolk; R. C. Banks, Kinston.

Although most of the county solons who were on the beach for the annual convention of the Commissioners' Association of North Carolina left Thursday night and yesterday morning for their homes in different parts of the State, a number are yet at the Oceanic Hotel, where the meeting was held, and will spend the remainder of the week there. Mr. Jesse N. Couch, the genial and popular manager of the Oceanic, who knows the hotel business from A to Z and who always puts forth every effort to provide for the comfort, convenience and pleasure of his guests, was made to feel glad yesterday morning when he received from the officers and several members of the Commissioners' Association a letter thanking him most heartily for the many courtesies shown them and for the unexcelled service of the hotel. The letter is one of the strongest that could be written and Mr. Couch was very glad indeed to know that his efforts had not been in vain.

Among the arrivals yesterday at The Seashore Hotel were: Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Via and Miss Catherine Via, Wadesboro; P. C. Whitlock, Esq., and A. J. Crompton, Charlotte, N. C.; C. M. Edmonds, Sumters S. C.; R. A. McLean, Mount Olive; Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Bond, Hunters' Lodge, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. F.E. Bailey, Birmingham; Misses B. and Mary Anderson, Rome, Ga.; Mrs. L. V. DEMOCRATS HARMONIZE.

National and Congressional Committee Agree to Work Together.

Washington, Aug. 16:—Close cooperation between the Democratic National and Congressional committees and a merger of the funds, according to Representative Lloyd, of Missouri, chairman of the latter committee, has been agreed upon by the Democratic field generals for the coming campaign. The plans were adopted after a lengthy series of conferences and it is believed will result not only in increasing results, but greatly reducing expenses."

"For the first time the committees will merge their campaign contributions," said Mr. Lloyd. "The two committees will proceed throughout the campaign virtually as one organization."

Chicago is to be the Western headquarters of the Congressional committee with Chairman Lloyd in charge, while hearquarters will be maintained here under the direction of Representatives Finley of South Carolina, and Page, of North Carolina, vice chairman and secretary, respectively of the committee.

Aquatic events today at the Beach in front of Lumina, 4:30 P. M. Canoe Race, Swimming Race, Tilting Contest. **

MAPLE TREE COST $420.

Will Be Brought To Baltimore And Cut Into Veneer.

Young Harris, Ga., Aug 16.—J. M. Buchanan, of Brasstown, N. C., has purchased a tree from Bud Collins, of Notley River, paying $20 for it standing in the woods, 30 miles from a railroad. It was of the variety known as the pinch figured curly maple, and it was the biggest tree in this section, being eight feet in diameter at the stump, and five feet in diameter 78 feet above the stump, with no knots or limb in that distance.

This immense stick scaled 16,000 feet of lumber. It cost Buchanan $400 to get the tree cut, divided into sections and hauled to the rilroad at Murphy. The sections will make a solid carload and will be sent to Baltimore to be turned into veneer.

LAD KILLS MANY MOCCASINS.

Boy at Woodruff Slays 62 Snakes Averaging Foot in Length.

Woodruff, S. C., Aug. 16.—On one of the creeks which flows through this town a young boy the other day killed 62 water moccasins.

They averaged each about a foot long, except a mother snake, which measured four feet.

COTTON LOSES RECENT GAIN

A Renewal of General Selling Sends Prices 30 to 34 Points Lower—Private Crop Reports—Close Was Weak.

New York, Aug 16.—There was a renewal of general selling after some early irregularity in the cotton market today and prices lost a large part of their recent gain, with the close weak at a net decline of from 30 to 34 points.

The opening was steady at a decline of 6 to 14 points in sympathy with weak Liverpool cables.

There was good buying at the initial figures owing to a private crop report indicating that the condition had deteriorated a little over 3 per cent. since the end of July, and prices rallied some 8 or 10 points from the lowest during the first few minutes. The failure of the early weather map to show any precipitation in the extreme Southwest may also have contributed to the confidence of buyers, but after a rally to about 11.61 for December, the market weakened under heavy selling by spot houses and indications of a rapidly increasing new crop movement in Texas. A break of about 20 points from the best attracted a renewal of support from some of yesterday's big buyers, on which prices again steadied up, but after a recovery of 10 to 12 points the market ran into more aggressive and more general selling, which evidently resulted from private reports of rain or showers in previously dry sections of South Texas.

Offerings were very heavy in the late trading, when it was rumored that some of yesterday's biggest buyers were reducing their lines and the market closed at the lowest point of the day. Most of the private cables received attributed the weakness of Liverpool to liquidation of buyers for a reaction or continental selling, but one report was received via New Orleans which claimed that Liverpool had been flooded by offerings of net crop shipments from the Southwest, and this probably attracted more attention for the reason that new crop receipts at Houston were larger than for the same day last year. Private advices from Houston said that the showers reported in South Texas would delay the movement, but would add to the volume of the crop. The private crop report issued at the opening made the condition 76.7 against 79.9 two weeks ago.

Receipts 5,612 bales, against 2,810 last week and 7,442 last year. To-day's receipts at Galveston 4,317 against 6,299 last year; at New Orleans 364 against 554 last year, and at Houston 9,023 against 8,839 last year.

Spot cotton quiet; middling uplands 11.90; middling gulf 12.15; sales 400 bales. Futures closed weak.

BIG COTTON CROP EXPECTED

The Conviction That the Yield Will Surpass That of Last Year Has Caused Sharp Decline During Past Week

New York, August 16.—Cotton has recently declined so sharply as to arrest general attention in the business world of this country. The sensational fall of prices was primarily due to one thing, the breaking of the drought. This has led many to the conviction that the crop is going to be one of the largest ever raised. The big rains which have recently proved so beneficial over the larger part of Texas and the improved conditions elsewhere in the Southwest as well as east of the Mississippi, have encouraged many to believe that the record previous to last season will be surpassed that is, that the yield will exceed 14,000,000 bales. The South, Wall Street, Liverpool, the West, room traders, everybody indeed has sold on the idea that the outlook for the crop has widened out until there is no longer any great danger of a short yield. Prices for spot cotton have had to give way following futures, however, reluctantly as buyers withdrew. The receipts of new cotton in the Southwest have been large enough to attract attention. The cotton goods business as might have been expected has suffered to some extent from the great decline in the price of the material. Buyers of both spot cotton and of cotton goods have naturally been chilled by the sudden and dramatic fall of prices. The spot sales at Liverpool have dwindled to very small figures. Lancashire must feel the numbing effect of recent events.

Yet it would be a mistake to assume that there are no bulls left. There are bulls. They aver that the believers in still lower prices are taking too much for granted. Something may yet overtake the crop. September as well as August must be favorable if the crop is to be large.

Bulls argue that a big crop has not been raised and that it may not be raised. Besides they contend that a decline of nearly two cents a pound offsets all the bearish arguments that the most rampant bear can offer. Also the bulls think that the short side has recently been greatly increased and that it threatens to become as swollen as the long side was recently. Furthermore, they think that the textile industries after a momentary pause will go ahead and in any case may be bound sooner or later to participate in the general prosperity whic hthey think awaits this country, especially as they think the political situation is less threatening than it was and that sudden and violent changes in the tariff are highly improbable. The general idea here at present, however, is that while rallies at the expense of the shorts are probable from time to time, yet unless the crop meets with a serious mishap, teh general direction of prices for a time at least, is likely to be downward.

SPECULATIVE ISSUES HEAVY

Favorites Under Pressure Most of Session Yesterday's Stock Market—Coppers Figured in the Day's Dealings

New York, August 16. — Further modification of recent bullishness was suggested by the trend of stocks today. The speculative favorites were under pressure most of the session, particularly the important railway issues which have shown a considerable degree of heaviness in connection with the agitation accompanying the Panama Canal bill at Washington.

Coppers and equipment stocks figured more than proportionately in the day's moderate dealings, which were marked by frequent pauses. China was the feature of the metal shares, the convertible bonds as well as the stock registering material gains. Other specialties were active and strong, including Pullman Car, which made its best price in several years, while American Tobacco was conspicuously weak. Contrariwise, some of its former allies were up 1 to 2 points.

For the first time this week Canadian Pacific showed the effects of liquidation, while Union Pacific, St. Paul, Reading, Lehigh Valley and Steel barely preserved an even balance until the final hour, when, after selling at lowest quotations of the day, they rallied to a level which left a majority of net gains. The late recovery was generally ascribed to Washington despatches stating that the Senate had refused to pass the Steel tariff bill over the President's veto.

Bonds were lower, with total sales, par value $1,813,000. United States government bonds unchanged on call. Total sales 375,200 shares.

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW.

New York, Aug. 16.—Bradstreet's Trade, Crop and Industrial Developments of a Gratified Character.

tomorrow will say: Trade, crop and industrial developments are of a gratifying character and though a few lines have experienced slight recessions, things in general are onward. Incidentally the iron and steel trade continues to surge forward at a more profitable rate. In some of the more prosperous farming regions there is a renewed movement to pay off outstanding obligations and while collections in parts of the South remain slow, there is evidence of improvement in payments.

Operating officers of the railways are stronger than ever in their belief of a forthcoming car shortage, and the heavy crop movement that is likely to ensue will mean a large return movement of merchandise all of which is bound to tax transportation facilities.

Ordersfor dry good are numerous with Western, Southwestern and Northwestern centers, but in the East some branches denote less activity than heretofore, though on the whole a good steady business has been transacted. Mens' wear and dress goods are still active, prices are firmer and some lines have been withdrawn.

Business failuures in the United States for the week ending August 15th were 221 against 221 last week and 215 in the like week in 1911.

FIRE AT BETSY CITY

Southern Roller Stave and Heading Co.'s Plant Destroyed

Elizabeth City, N. C., Aug. 15.—One of the most disastrous fires which has visited this city in a long time occurred tonight, when the entire plant of the Southern Roller Stave and Heading Company was practically destroyed, as well as six loaded freight cars of the Norfolk Southern Railroad which was on a siding near the doomed building. The loss is estimated at $30,000 partly covered by insurance.

That the plant was destroyed was due to the failure of the water supply near the plant which is located about five miles from the city, the pumps at the waterworks becoming disabled during the height of the fire causing the fire fighters to stand by unable to do anything to prevent the spread of the flames to adjoining property. Luckily very little wind was on at the time and although the blaze was not gotten under control up until a late hour, it had not spread to any additional property.

T. R. OPENS CAMPAIGN.

Thousands Hear Him Speak at Providence, R. I.—Great Welcome.

Providence, R. I., Aug. 16.—With cheerings and songs and prayer, the Progressive party campaign was opened here tonight. Theodore Roosevelt came to Rhode Island, which he described as a boss ridden State, to open the campaign and received a welcome, which, as he put it, "would have done credit to Kansas."

When the colonel reached Providence at 5 o'clock he found several thousand persons massed in the square before the railroad station and on the street leading to his hotel. The crowd blocked the way and cheered him until he stood up in his automobile and made a speech. He was halted a second time in front of the city hall and made another address.

Three hours later Col. Roosevelt stood on the stage at Infantry Hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the colonel beat time. Outside the building were hundreds who were unable to get in.

When the din finally died away, Col Roosevelt said:

"Right at the outset I wish to answer a question that has been put to me two or three times since I reached Rhode Island. Men have asked me if this movement is going to go on or if it is just a movement which is connected with me. This movement is going on just as sure as fate. This is a real movement, springing from the needs and hearts of the people of the United States.

"The only part that I have had in it is that perhaps I have brought it on two or three years earlier than it would have come anyhow.

"The man is blind who does not see that our people are tired of having other people govern them. Our people were making up their minds that there must be a new party which should deal with live issues instead of dead ones.

"This is a permanent movement. It is a permaennt party, a new party.

"Every man who does not want the bosses to rule, whom we can get at, is going to be for us. The only difficulty is in getting at enough of them."

Col. Roosevelt kept his audience in a happy mood with epigrammatic remarks which he interjected into his prepared speech.

"The boss in private life could not look you in the face without grinning if you called him a servant of the people," he said.

At another time he compared the Republican and Democratic parties to a pack of wolves with the voter as a sheep.

"When two wolves fight for a sheep," said he, "each one dislikes the other, but there is not any benefit to the sheep in that dislike."

The coonel said he was taking a more advanced stand constantly as he went forward with the new party movement.

"As this movement develops," he declared, "instead of being less radical, I have grown more radical. I am ready to go further than the platform."

In his prepared speech, Col. Roosevelt assailed the Republican and Democratic parties and discussed the tariff and the currency questions.

He declared that the ordinary voter had nothing to hope for through the success of either the Democratic or Republican parties which, he asserted are equally boss ridden.

On the way from New York Col. Roosevelt spoke to a crowd at Stamford, Conn.

"If you aren't fit to govern yourselves," he said, "stay in either of the old parties. If you intend to show that as American citizens you have the power to rule yourselves then come with us."

Col. Roosevelt spent the night in Providence and in the morning will go to Boston to deliver an address at Revere Beach.

ACCIDENTS ON INCREASE.

Bulletin Issued Yesterday Shows 2,338 Deaths in Last Quarter.

Washington, Aug. 1—Railroad accidents and the casualties resulting were on the increase during the three months which ended July 31st. The quarterly accident bulletin issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission today shows 2,383 persons were killed and 20,499 were injured.

In train accidents 267 persons were killed and 4,785 were injured an increase of 121 killed and 1,555 injured as compared with the corresponding quarter of 1911.

Of the 2,383 fatalities 1,116 were suffered by trespasses; persons using railroad tracks as thoroughfares or those stealing rides on trains.

CONEST IS SETTLED.

Representative LaGare, of South Carolina, Entitled to Seat.

Washington, August 16.—Representative LaGare, Democrat, of South Carolina, was today declared by the House entitled to his seat, and a contest by Aaron T. Prioleau, a negro was thrown out.

Prioleau, a Republican, has filed contests in every Congressional election in the first South Carolina district for 10 years. Until the contest before the present one he was allowed $2,000 for expenses in prosecuting each case. Then the sum was materially reduced. Members of the election committee today intimated that they would further reduce the amount.

REMARKABLE STORY.

Philadelphia Councilman a Confessed Criminal—Mayor's Idea.

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 16.—Mayor Rudolph Blakenburg, of this city, in a statement issued tonight from Pocono Pines, leads a movement to turn back the resignation of Councilman William Burke, of the 33rd ward, whose remarkable story that he was a reformed criminal, who was suffering at the hans of a "black mailer" was published here today with the news that he had sent his resignation to the president of common councils.

While stating that the acceptance of the resignation is a matter for the consideration of councils, the mayor warn this this is the time for application of the Golden Rule.

Presdent McCurdy, of Common Councils, has not been in the city hall within the past few days and has not yet opened the letter of resignation.

Burke's whereabouts have not been disclosed by the writing of his experiences.

Burke furnished the story of his life to a local newspaper before he left the city. He declared that a convict who had served a sentence with him in the Massachusetts State prison, recognized him after his election as a councilman and threatened to make public his record. Members of city councils say Burke's career in the chamber has been marked by a number of eccentric episodes, and it is recalled that soon after his election he was taken into custody by the police in a tenderloin district after he had spent the evening handing out his cards to women of the street, and telling them they would have to leave town. After threatening the police he was locked up, but later was released by the magistrate.

Mrs. Mary Brennan, mother in law, declared today that Burke was a good son-in-law. She said he was kind to his wife and step-child, was a gentleman and that he bacome a councilman because the men in his district would not have any other man. The Brennans say they know nothing about his criminal career and did not know that the story of his life was to be made public.

According to Burke's story appearing in a Philadelphia newspaper today under his signature for yesterday, before he become a convict by profession, he had led the life of a thief, a pick pocket, a yeggman and porch climber. When he was arrested, previous to his conviction at Boston, he was called the "Prince of flat workers"

Burke married a widowed daughter of Mrs. Brennan about four years ago. It was said at the Brenna home that Burke went away Sunday, saying he was going to find a position and that they had had no word from his since.

TO VOTE FOR WILSON.

Prototype of the Colonel, Says Mrs. Atherton, in 'Frisco Address.

San Francisco, Aug. 16.—Mrs. Gertrude Atherton, the California novelist "took the stump" here last night to tell California's newly enfranchised women why, in her opinion, they should vote for Woodrow Wilson. Beginning with the announcement that "I can not see much difference in the personal platforms of Wilson and Roosevelt," Mrs. Atherton delivered an epigrammatical attack upon Col. Roosevelt and a life defense of Gov. Wilson.

She said in part: "Seventy years ago Charlotte Bronte invented Roosevelt in the character of Rochester. Since that time women have loved Rochester, the man who was 100 per cent male. I confess that I have a sneaking affection for the type. Rochester was a collossal bluffer—the self-sufficient man. Roosevelt is of that sort.

"Woodrow Wilson is a man who always exercised self-control. He will never be found acting like a bull moose. It will never be possible to call Wodrow Wilson 'Woody' as Roosevelt is called 'Teddy.'

"Recently Rosevelt burst out for suffrage for women. Wilson is opposed to women suffrage and is too honest to say that he is for it. He has a few old fashioned prejudices. But the best way to correct them i sto vote for Wilson and convince him by that the means that suffrage for women is a good thing."

Mrs. Atherton said that Socialism is becoming "fashionable" in New York.

FORTUNE LEFT CHAUFFEUR

But Inheritance of $100,000 Won't Cause Him to Quit

Bay Shore, N. Y., Aug. 16.—Frank Knight, a chauffeur, employed by J. H. Beales, a wealthy Summer resident, was notified last night that through the death of an uncle he had been left an inheritance of $100,900.

"I suppose you will be leaving me now, Frank," said Mr. Beales after congratulating his driver.

"Not unless you don't want me any more," said Knight. "I like this job and I am going to stick to it."

Knight said he will put the money in a savings bank until he can think of some way to spend it.

WHY HE LEAVES THE PULPIT

Unitarian Pastor Declares That As Editor He Will Achieve More

Boston, Aug. 16.—"Men who would refuse to enter a church to hear certain truths would read the same truth in a newspaper and applaud it," is one of the statements made by the Rev. Charles W. Casson, in announcing his withdrawal from the pulpit of the Unitarian church of Dorchester, to accept the editorship of The Ottawa, Canada, Citizen.

He says he is a believer in women suffrage, public ownership and Socialistic ideals and adds: "I expect to do vastly more good as an editor than as a minister."

NELSON TO FIGHT.

Battler Will Meet Ketchell on Labor Day at St. Joseph.

St. Joseph, Mo., Aug. 16.—"Battling" Nelson and Steve Ketcnell were matched today for a 15-round bout here the afternoon of Labor Day. The boxers will make 133 pounds at 10 A. M., September 2nd.

Dunkirk, N. Y., Aug. 16.—Charles H. Flahaven, a wealthy resident of this city, was instantly killed and his mother and sister were seriously injured in an automobile accident near Fredonia last night. The steering gear broke, sending the machine down an embankment.

GIRL SWIMS NINE MILES.

Miss Diver Establishes New Endurance Record for Her Sex.

Watched by thousands of persons who lined the banks of the Delaware, between Market street wharf and Riverton, Miss Kathryn Diver, 20 years old, of 1703 Willington street, yesterday swam the entire distance between these points and then just to show she wasn't the least bit tired by the trip, rowed from Race street pier to Cooper's creek, Camden, a distance of three miles, says The Philadelphia Ledger. According to Noah Miarks, teacher of swimming at the Philadelphia Turngemeinde, who instructed Miss Diver in the art, the young women by her feat has established a new record for endurance for her sex. The swim to Riverton was made in three hours and 7 minutes.

Twenty-five motor boats followed Miss Diver over the course, in one was her father, Capt. Edward Diver, and her instructor. The young woman one month ago, it is said, could only swim across the pool at the Turngemeinde.

At Riverton more than 1,000 persons turned out to greet the swimmer, and a committee, headed by Commodore Reese, of the Riverton Yacht Club, met her at Riverton pier. Miss Diver alternated between the trudgeon and side stroke.

THE DARROW TRIAL

District Attorney Concludes Argument —Judge's Charge Today

Los Angeles, Cal, August 16.—In the case of Clarence S. Darrow, charged with jury bribery, District Attorney Fredericks did not conclude the argument for the prosecution until late tonight and Judge Hutton announced that he would not deliver his instructions to the jury until tomorrow. Mr. Fredericks closed his argument by urging the jurors to convict Darrow, to set aside their sympathy with him and by finding him guilty, put an end forever to the corruption of juries.

"If by reason of his age," he said, "for any other reason, you think he is entitled to consideration of clemency let the court extend it."

In summing up Mr. Fredericks read a list of 22 alleged crimes which he said had been committed by Darrow in his preparation for the McNamara trial.

Mr. Fredericks declared that if Darrow was not convicted jury-bribing would be made safe forever. No jury, he said, could ever get a stronger or clearer case than that which had been presented in this instance.

HUNDREDS KNEEL IN STREET

Prayers for Soul of Italian Killed by Car In New York

New York, August 16.—Twelve hundred Italians who had just left midnight open-air celebrations of the feast of the Assumption in the Upper Bronx knelt in the street at 1 o'clock this morning around the body of Frank Rimoli, one of the leaders, who lay decapitated under a Jerome avenue street car.

Rimoli was knocked off the car and fell under the wheels. The conductor of the street car declared to his passengers that the accident was due to the fact that Rimoli had jumped on board from the wrong side in an effort to avoid paying his fare.

"That is true," said one of Rimoli's friends. "He had put every cent he had in the collection plate at the feast."

The conductor, himself a devout Italian, then suggested that all those present kneel and pray for the soul of Rimoli. Several cars, following, all crowded with Italians, were stopped and their occupants joined those praying in the street until fully 1,200 men and women were kneeling around the mangled body.

MONEY FOR SIGNERS

Suffragettes Will Give Cent a Piece For Names In Illinois

New York, Aug. 16.—Signatures of registered voters attached to equal suffrage petitions are worth one cent each in Illinois and this price will obtain until 20,000 more names are procured.

This advertisement which Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch, and Evanston suffragist, is sending out, explains the market value of the signature: "Help wanted; I will pay for services in obtaining genuine signatures of registered Illinois voters on our woman suffrage public policy petition at the rate of $1 a hundred signatures until 20,000 additional signatures are obtained prior to September 1st, 1912."

One hundred thousand signatures are required before the question may be submitted to a vote at the general election next November.

MRS. JONES STILL SILENT.

Refuses to Tell Her Version of Nashville Tragedy.

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 16.—After she had been held in $10,000 bond today Mrs. J. G. Jones, accused slayed of Mrs. Alva Cave, refused to tell her version of the tragedy and events leading up to it.

The funeral of Mrs. Cave who was a daughter-in-law of Rev. Dr. R. Lin Cave, chaplain general of the United Confederate Veterans took place this afternoon. Floral tributes were sent by friends from all over the South.

Mrs. Jones admitted today that Mrs. Cave, who was a widow had not been involved in events that resulted in the filing of divorce bill against Jones. She intimated the charges, however, that Mrs. Cave played a part in the domestic drama that separated them a second time after divorce bill had been withdrawn.

Atlantic City, Aug. 16.—Grover Berdoll, 19, law student at the University of Pennsylvania and a member of a wealthy Philadelphia family, accomplished an eaeroplane flight with a passenger from Philadelphia to Atlantic City early today. His passenger was Charles Krouse, a mechanician. Bergdoll ascended near Llanerch, about five miles west of Philadelphia at 5:40 o'clock and maintaining an average speed of about 50 miles an hour, landed at 7.05 o'clock. The distance was about 70 miles.

It may be possible to obtain a jag by absorbing the sun, but many men will prefer instead the old-fashioned "moonshine."

One way to judge a man's following is by the length of his funeral procession.

HOUSE COULDN'T AGREE.

Adjournment Taken When Opposition to Canal Bill Developed.

Washington, Aug. 16.—Such unexpected opposition to the amended Panama canal bill developed in the House tonight that an adjournment was taken as to the best way out of an embarrassing situation. Representatives Moore and Omsted, of Pennsylvania Repubilcans, led the attack. They charged that the conferees had added matter not passed upon by either the House or Senate and insisted by so doing, had exceeded their authority.

The Senate earlier in the day had adopted the conference report by a vote of 48 to 18, after a hard fight led by Senator Brandegee, chairman of the Senate conferees, who had refused to sign the agreement. Senator Brandegee urged defeat of the conference report and the passage of a temporary resolution giving the President power to operate the canal.

In the House especial stress was laid on the fact that a provision for the free entry of shipbuilding material into the canal zone had been injected into the measure. This, Mr. Olmstead argued, was a revenue item, and could not properly come either from the Senate or be included in any general bill without the sanction of the House.

The extension of the free tolls privilege of the American ships trading with the Philippines, Tutuila, Samoa and Guam also was attacked. Representative Alexander, of Missouri, Democrat, explained that this was necessary to permit American ships trading with those islands to enjoy the privileges.

Speaker Clark sought light on the situation. Finally seeing there was no chance of progress being made tonight, Majority Leader Underwood forced an adjournment.

KNOX LEAVES FOR JAPAN

Will Represent United States at Emperor's Funeral

Washington, August 16.—The Secretary of State, for the time being special ambassador of President Taft to Emperor Yoshihito, of Japan, left Washington, at 6:45 today, accompanied by Mrs. Knox and Ransford S. Miller, chief of the Far Eastern division of the State Department, on a journey half way around the world, to personally represent the President of the United States at the funeral ceremonies of the deceased Japanese emperor, Mutsuhito at Tokio, September 13th.

The party traveled in a special car by way of Chicago, St. Paul and Banff to Seattle, where they will embark on the big armored cruiser Maryland. At Seattle Secretary Knox will be joined by Admiral Reynolds, his naval aide and at Yokohama by Brigadier General Pershin, the military member of his staff. It is expected that the party will be back in Washington early in October.

Batavia, N. Y., Aug. 16.—A committee from the State commandery of the Sons of Veterans, will begin an active campaign next month to secure the passage of a law calling for the observance of memorial day like a Sunday, devoid of sports and amusements.
